QUAKES FIRE UP VOLCANOES

U.S. Spy-in-Sky Satellite Ready for Series of Tests

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —An experimental Midas "spy" satellite today whirled about the earth every 94.34 minutes, ready to test its missile detection equipment on giant flares and friendly rockets.

Midas, weighing 2½ tons, will determine the feasibility of using a series of such satellites to patrol the earth for enemy missiles. These orbiting space stations will use infra-red sensing devices to detect the heat trail of a hostile missile the instant it is fired.

The alarm would be radioed to the United States, which then would have about 30 minutes to activate defense and retaliatory measures.

The Midas test vehicle Tuesday was launched into a near-circular orbit from this missile base. Air Force officials reported its path through space ranged from an apogee of 322 miles to a perigee of 292.1 miles. They said its radio and sensors were functioning perfectly and that it programmed as planned so its instrument-laden nose always is pointed at the earth.

The mammoth satellite, 22 feet long and 5 feet in diameter, probably will tests its sensing equipment for the first time on huge sodium flares set to ignite at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif. The first flare will be fired within a few days, at a time when the satellite passes overhead.

Midas also will try to pick up rocket launchings at Cape Canaveral and Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., during its expected useful life of three to four weeks. It probably will remain in orbit about three years.

The satellite is following a course that covers all territory 28 degrees north and south of the equator. It does not pass over the Soviet Union.

However, by the end of the year, an advanced Midas and the first Samos reconnaissance satellite are expected to be spinning in polar orbits that will take them over the Soviet Union.

By 1962, networks of six or eight of these "spies in the sky" are slated to provide complete and constant scanning of the earth's entire surface. Samos will photograph troop installations and movements, war plants, air fields and missile bases.

"SPY" IN THE SKY — The world's first military "spy in the sky" satellite — Midas II — heads for an orbit around the earth after leaving Cape Canaveral, Fla. The Midas II will be able to detect missile firings and flash advance warning of sneak attacks by an aggressor.

1st National Bank Acquires Land, Building

The First National Bank, 102 E. Main St., has leased the land and building owned by Miss Nellie Palm and Mrs. Irene Jenkins, both of 152 E. High St., it was announced today by its board of directors.

The property now houses Palm's Restaurant, 110 E. Main St., which is owned and operated by Donald Jenkins, Route 3.

The lease, which includes a purchase option, is for 50 years, renewable for an additional 50 years and then renewable forever.

The directors related that Jenkins will continue to operate the restaurant until late fall, at which time he plans to close his business and the bank will take possession of the building.

JENKINS and his wife, Flora, own and operate the Circleville Motel, Route 3.

The bank's acquisition has been made in order that it might continue to progress with the expansion and growth of the city.

"Plans for the newly acquired building are incomplete. Ultimate use will depend on how it might be best fitted into First National's program for increasing its service to the bank's patrons," directors concluded.

Postage Stamp Cheat Handed Prison Term

NEW YORK (AP)—A mail clerk who cheated his brokerage firm of an estimated half-million dollars in postage stamps has been sentenced to 2½ to 3½ years in prison.

General Sessions Judge Mitchell D. Schweitzer Tuesday sentenced Charles A. Willis, 56, after his lawyer pleaded that he had made $22,000 in restitutions.

Police said Willis sold stamps which had been purchased with company money.

Return of U.S. Crew Delayed

East Germany's Bad Weather Is Blamed

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP)—Wind and rain today canceled the flight back to freedom of nine Americans and their C47 from Communist East Germany, the U.S. Army announced.

While the plane is in good condition, an Army statement said the Soviet military command was asked to authorize the return of five of the occupants by motor vehicles.

The Soviets released the Americans and the plane Tuesday.

The pilot, copilot, radio operator and crew chief of the plane, the Army said, will fly the aircraft from East Germany when weather conditions permit.

A Communist police official at Grevesmuehlen, near the meadow where Soviet fighters forced down the lumbering old twin-engine transport Friday, said the East Germans had prepared a takeoff strip. But he said the weather was bad.

Gusty winds and clouds covered North Germany. Tuesday heavy rains softened the ground.

U.S. Air Force men stood by at Wiesbaden to welcome the nine Americans—eight men and a woman—who strayed on a flight from Copenhagen, Denmark, to Hamburg, Germany, and spent four days in Soviet custody.

A U.S. military mission team headed by Lt. Col. Clarke T. Baldwin Jr., of Warrenton, Va., motored to the landing site, about 10 miles inside of the Iron Curtain to handle formalities connected with the release.

Baldwin was reported under instructions to charter a bus for the nine and head them either to West Germany, or Allied-occupied West Berlin if the C47 could not take them aloft safely.

City Acquires 119 Acres in Annexation

New Area Includes Garden City Tract; To Be Developed

The City of Circleville is 119.64 acres larger today. Last night Council agreed to the annexation of the Garden City Subdivision of the Knollwood Development Co. and other areas.

In a special meeting the lawmakers approved the annexation of the tract which lies in the vicinity of Nicholas Drive and Route 188, in the northeast section of the city. At the same time the Council accepted the plat of the subdivision.

This is the first large area taken into the city since annexation of the Raymond Moats and other subdivisions in 1954. Last annexation was the Frank L. Gorsuch Subdivision two years ago, but the acreage was not large.

There are 113 lots in the new Garden City Subdivision. The Knollwood Development Co. plans to build homes in the medium to better price range. The subdivision also contains a 5.17-acre area for development in Residential "B" classification, and a 2.63-acre park area.

Petitioners for the annexation were the Knollwood Development Co., Dale M. Ankrom, Otto F. and Mary V. Guenther, Charles H. Walters and Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Martin.

* * *

THERE ARE 59 acres in the Garden City Subdivision, and the balance of the newly-annexed territory is across Nicholas Drive to the east, comprising some 60 acres.

J. Boyd Stout of the Knollwood Development Co. said that construction will begin in the Garden City Subdivision within 10 days. He said lot sizes in the area will vary from 10,000 square feet to 35,000 square feet. One and two-story dwellings will be built.

In accepting the plat for the Garden City area, Council required the Knollwood Development Co. to install paved streets, curbs and gutters, sanitary sewers, sanitary manholes, storm water manholes and catch basins, in accordance with the new subdivision regulations.

It is the intention of the Knollwood Development Co. to develop the area in three sections. Bond for the first two sections, totaling $53,000 must be posted to assure the developer will install the improvements as required.

Both ordinances were passed as emergency measures.

Floridians Shun Moderate Dem

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Farris Bryant, Harvard-trained Ocala attorney who urged a firm hand in dealing with Florida's integration problems, has won the Democratic nomination for governor.

The 45-year-old former House speaker captured 55 of the state's 67 counties in a smashing triumph over State Sen. Doyle E. Carlton Jr., who had pledged to continue the moderate course of retiring Gov. Leroy Collins in dealing with racial problems.

Bryant has to face Republican nominee George Petersen of Fort Lauderdale in November, but Democratic nomination has been tantamount to election in Florida.

Seniors Speak Their Minds

Graduates Say Schooling Adequate; Some Think They Should Work Harder

The 411 graduating seniors of Pickaway County and surrounding communities rated their high school education as adequate in a recent poll conducted by The Herald.

Seniors participating in the poll came from the 10 county high schools, Circleville, Stoutsville, Laurelville and Kingston. A total of 15 questions were asked with all schools responding.

A total of 161 pupils rated their education as adequate while 108 said it was good and 42 stated it was insufficient.

Asked if teachers had made them work, 176 said they had been worked hard enough. A total of 128 said they hadn't worked hard enough and 11 complained of being worked too hard.

* * *

WHEN IT CAME to a question of parental strictness, a commanding majority of 255 said their parents had been strict enough. Forty-six said they were not strict enough and 16 critized their parents for being too strict.

A total of 143 seniors said they believed they would be better off financially in 20 years than their parents, while nine felt they would be in worse financial condition. Thirty-four weren't sure in what shape they would be in and 126 said perhaps they would be better off.

One interesting factor was that only 28 of the 411 seniors plan to marry immediately after graduation.

A question concerning the possibility of a third world war brought out several odd results. Of the 199 seniors believing a war inevitable and another 136 saying perhaps it would occur, only 60 said they expected to fight in it.

Thirty - five didn't know and 26 said there would be no war. A total of 122 seniors said they didn't expect to fight in case of war, while 50 didn't know and 82 said perhaps they would do battle.

Remembering that there are 411 boys and girls graduating this year, a meager 72 are going to attend college or 17.4 per cent of the class.

* * *

FITY-TWO are planning to attend special schools; 26 are entering the Armed Services; 13 are taking up housekeeping, and 145 will work full time.

The students were asked what they would consider a good income for an established adult. Among the girls, $6,000 was the most popular figure with 32 voting for it.

The boys moved up the bracket somewhat, signifying $10,000 as the best figure. In second place came $6,000 for the boys and $8,000 for the girls.

Other figures for the girls were 17 for $5,000 and $10,000; 15 for $7,000; 13 for $4,000; five for $9,000, $6,500 and $5,500, and four for $7,500, $12,000 and $4,500.

Surprisingly enough boys weren't much higher in choosing their established incomes. A total of 18 were for 8,000; 15 for $7,000; 11 for $7,500; nine for $5,000; five for $5,500; six for $6,500, and four for $15,000, $9,000, $8,500, $12,000 and 4,500.

The students were asked what career they plan to follow eventually. Most popular among the girls was secretarial work, with 37,

Cost of Living Hits New Peak

Increase in April Largest since June

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs rose four-tenths of one per cent in April to another record high.

The rise was the largest for any month since last June.

In reporting the increase today, the Labor Department said it was largely due to a raise in food prices. Poor spring growing conditions were a factor in the upward movement of food costs.

The department consumers price index rose to 126.2 per cent of the 1947-49 base period. This is 1.9 per cent higher than a year earlier.

Nearly a million workers in the auto, farm equipment and related parts industries will get a 2-cent-an-hour pay raise because of the April living cost rise. Their union contracts provide for adjustments based on the consumers price index.

An adjustment of about one-cent an hour will go to an additional 150,000 workers, most of them employed by the Westinghouse Electric Manufacturing Co.

Similar pay raises may be due an additional 100,000 workers, mostly in aircraft plants. Their situation is uncertain because their labor contracts providing for adjustments have either expired or will soon do so.

Arnold Chase, Labor Department price chief, said the sizable living cost rise in April is not viewed as the beginning of a strong upward trend in consumers prices.

Chase said the April increase was particularly influenced by price boosts for fresh meats and vegetables. He said the food price increase was due to supply shortages brought about by adverse weather during the past few months.

Foods as a whole rose by 1½ per cent between March and April. Prices rose for most meats, particularly pork; fresh fruits, eggs, and for potatoes and tomatoes.

Chase said that because of the unusually large increase in food prices in April, he expected little change in May.

Salute to Class of 1960

Today all of Circleville and Pickaway County salute the graduates of the Class of 1960.

This week 411 seniors are being graduated from 14 city, county and area schools. Today's edition of The Circleville Herald is dedicated to these young citizens as they move on to their places in this active, nervous world.

Merchants throughout the area use this paper to offer their congratulations to each and every one of the 411 graduates. Included are stories and pictures of nearly every member of the Class of '60.

This community will depend in large part on these fine youths for leadership in the future. The least we can do is to offer congratulations and a pledge to let them find their place with freedom and encouragement.

Unofficial Delegate Tally Puts Nixon over Top Now

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tennessee and Florida Republican delegates joined the Nixon for president parade Tuesday, pushing the vice president well beyond the 666 majority needed for the GOP presidential nomination.

Tennessee's 28 delegates were instructed for Nixon at a state party convention. Florida's 26 delegates were captured without challenge in a primary.

The unofficial delegate standings, based on primary and state convention actions, plus Associated Press polls of uncommitted delegates, today showed:

Vice President Richard M. Nixon 686, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona 29 (Ariz. 14, Idaho 2, S.C. 13), Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York 1 (Ark.), uncommitted 124.

The 840 GOP delegates so far named represent nearly two-thirds of the total national convention roster of 1,331. A majority is 666.

Delegate picking today was confined to Illinois where a state convention will round out a Democratic National Convention delegation with 69 votes by naming delegates at large. District delegates were elected in an April 12 primary.

Delaware names Democratic delegates Thursday. Alabama Republicans and Iowa and Washington Democrats complete delegations on Saturday.

Florida Democrats added a favorite son Tuesday to the growing list of favorites and uncommitted delegations which will hold the balance of power in the Democratic National Convention.

It gave its 29-vote delegation to Sen. George Smathers without opposition in primary voting.

This left the unofficial score of Democratic delegate votes as:

Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts 330½, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas 111, Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri 60, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota 51½, Adlai E. Stevenson 16, others 146½, uncommitted 272½—total 988 out of a national convention vote of 1,521. It will take 761 to nominate for the Democrats.

Youth Drowns In Darby Creek

Swim Outing Fatal To Wayne Dingus, 13

A swimming outing at Big Darby Creek ended in tragedy for a 13-year-old Commercial Point boy yesterday.

Drowned was Wayne Dingus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Casto Dingus, Commercial Point. Companions said the boy disappeared under the water at about 3:30 p. m. The body was found at 7:02 p. m. following a desperate search by more than 100 volunteers from four counties.

The young friends swimming with Dingus were Michael Wilson, 14, Commercial Point, Charles Kuder, 13, Route 1, Orient, and Curtis Lemaster, 13, Route 2, Ashville.

The youths, all 8th grade students at Scioto School, said they were swimming in waist deep water behind the residence of William Thrailkill on Thrailkill Road in Scioto Twp. The three companions said Dingus was suddenly caught by swift current and pulled under.

* * *

DINGUS went down twice, the boys said, then went under the third time never to appear again. Lemaster told Sheriff Charles H. Radcliff he grabbed his friend, along with Kuder, but that they were unable to hold on.

The youths said they made a frantic, but unsuccessful search for about 15 minutes, then called on area residents for help. The sheriff's department was notified.

Sheriff Radcliff and Deputies Dwight Radcliff and Homer Adams launched an immediate search while wating of additional assistance. Finally at about 7 p. m. the body was found by Ralph Leist, fireman at the local courhouse.

Sheriff Radcliff said the youth was hooked under the arm by Leist. The same area had been probed time and again before contact finally was made.

The sheriff said the boy was

Chile Death Toll Nears 2,000 Mark

At Least 5 Mountain Peaks Erupt after Years of Silence

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Death and devastation mounted in southern Chile today in the wake of continuing earthquakes and tidal waves. Erupting volcanoes added to the horror.

Authorities put the toll at nearly 2,000 dead or missing and perhaps two million without homes. Official sources predicted the total would rise considerably when full reports were in from areas isolated by the communication breakdown.

The government had not even begun reckoning the property damage caused by the earth convulsions, but the Interior Ministry said it would run to many hundreds of millions of dollars. Reconstruction will take many years, it said.

Tidal waves spawned by the quakes were taking the heaviest toll. One surging wall of water carried 630 of the 800 residents of Quelen to death Sunday, the Interior Ministry said. Another wave killed more than 100 at Aleta Tuesday.

An 18-foot crest broke over the seaside resort of Mejuin Tuesday, drowning 120 persons. Other reports told of whole villages swept away by waves up to 24 feet high. At least 500 persons were missing in three southern provinces.

Two Chilean freighters, the Santiago and El Canelo, went down in mountainous seas off Puerto Corral. All aboard were believed lost.

New quakes spread terror, rocking the mountainous southern provinces. Landslides crashed into the Pacific at Maullin, a town of 1,500 about 600 miles south of Santiago.

At least five volcanoes were brought to life by the earth seizures and a new one was reported born.

Four volcanoes—Osorno, Caulle, Carral and Casablanca — were erupting in Osorno province about 500 miles south of Santiago, officials said. Communities in the area were ordered evacuated.

A pilot reported that 7,350-foot Puyehue, near Osorno, also was belching fire. In Cauhin province to the north a new volcano began spitting flame and smoke.

Honolulu, on Hilo, began burying its tidal wave dead today as rescue workers continued searching debris along the city's waterfront.

The toll: 38 dead, 21 missing and 53 injured in the disaster, Hawaii's worst in 14 years.

The shattered city's 26,000 residents are threatened now by other dangers. They have started spraying to combat disease. People have been asked to drink only boiled water. There is a massive sanitation problem.

The havoc brought by the four waves that struck early Monday morning sent unofficial damage estimates soaring to 60 million dollars. One hundred business firms were destroyed or damaged.

Meanwhile, Japan and the Western Pacific today reckoned its toll from the Chilean tidal

President To Report to U.S. Tonight On Collapse of Summit, Its Effect

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower reports to the American people tonight on the collapse of the summit conference and its effect on the policies of this and other free world nations.

He speaks out in the midst of political, diplomatic and legislative repercussions over the use of a U.S. spy plane brought down in the Soviet Union just before the summit blowup.

The Kremlin was urged by the White House to let the Soviet people listen to broadcasts on the President's 30-minute talk. James C. Hagerty, making the appeal through American newsmen, said "the Russian people, as well as the free people of the world have a right to hear it."

The President's address, from the White House at 7 p.m. EST will be carried live by CBS and ABC TV networks, and all major radio networks. It will be rebroadcast at 9 p.m. by NBC-TV.

The Voice of America arranged to broadcast the presidential message overseas in English and 38 other languages, including Russian.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee called Secretary of State Christian A. Herter for closed-door testimony Friday, starting a major inquiry into the downing of the U2 spy plane and the chain of events which followed it.

The hearings are to continue into next week, with testimony by Director Allen W. Dulles of the Central Intelligence Agency, Secretary of Defense Thomas S. Gates Jr., Gen. Nathan Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Agency.

Two other Senate probes were planned on a lesser scale—one by a special committee which keeps regular check on the Central Intelligence Agency and the other by a subcommittee studying government policy machinery.

A White House aide claims that the U.S. lied about the U2 plane to give pilot Francis G, Powers a "chance to escape".

Robert E. Merriam, deputy assistant to the President, Tuesday gave that version of the incident to the women's division of the Capitol Hill Club, a Republican group.

After the Soviet Union reported that a plane had crossed its borders, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and the State Department said that a U2 plane on a weather reconnaissance flight, was missing.

When the Soviets then announced the plane had been shot down and the pilot captured, the State Department admitted the plane had been on an espionage flight.

Merriam said Powers was under instructions to try to escape if he was forced down. He had elaborate equipment to do so, the White House aide said.

Merriam said the weather story was released to help Powers get out of the country if he were still alive.

Merriam did not say who had made the decision to make up the weather flight story.

East Germany's Bad Weather Is Blamed

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP)—Wind and rain today canceled the flight back to freedom of nine Americans and their C47 from Communist East Germany, the U.S. Army announced.

While the plane is in good condition, an Army statement said the Soviet military command was asked to authorize the return of five of the occupants by motor vehicles.

The Soviets released the Americans and the plane Tuesday.

The pilot, copilot, radio operator and crew chief of the plane, the Army said, will fly the aircraft from East Germany when weather conditions permit.

U.S. Air Force men stood by at Wiesbaden to welcome the nine Americans—eight men and a woman—who strayed on a flight from Copenhagen, Denmark, to Hamburg, Germany, and spent four days in Soviet custody.

A U.S. military mission team headed by Lt. Col. Clarke T. Baldwin Jr., of Warrenton, Va., motored to the landing site, about 10 miles inside of the Iron Curtain to handle formalities connected with the release.

Baldwin was reported under instructions to charter a bus for the nine and head them either to West Germany, or Allied-occupied West Berlin if the C47 could not take them aloft safely.

Floridians Shun Moderate Dem

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Farris Bryant, Harvard-trained Ocala attorney who urged a firm hand in dealing with Florida's integration problems, has won the Democratic nomination for governor.

The 45-year-old former House speaker captured 55 of the state's 67 counties in a smashing triumph over State Sen. Doyle E. Carlton Jr., who had pledged to continue the moderate course of retiring Gov. Leroy Collins in dealing with racial problems.

Bryant has to face Republican nominee George Petersen of Fort Lauderdale in November, but Democratic nomination has been tantamount to election in Florida.

Seniors Speak Their Minds

Graduates Say Schooling Adequate; Some Think They Should Work Harder

The 411 graduating seniors of Pickaway County and surrounding communities rated their high school education as adequate in a recent poll conducted by The Herald.

Seniors participating in the poll came from the 10 county high schools, Circleville, Stoutsville, Laurelville and Kingston. A total of 15 questions were asked with all schools responding.

A total of 161 pupils rated their education as adequate while 108 said it was good and 42 stated it was insufficient.

Asked if teachers had made them work, 176 said they had been worked hard enough. A total of 128 said they hadn't worked hard enough and 11 complained of being worked too hard.

* * *

WHEN IT CAME to a question of parental strictness, a commanding majority of 255 said their parents had been strict enough. Forty-six said they were not strict enough and 16 critized their parents for being too strict.

A total of 143 seniors said they believed they would be better off financially in 20 years than their parents, while nine felt they would be in worse financial condition. Thirty-four weren't sure in what shape they would be in and 126 said perhaps they would be better off.

One interesting factor was that only 28 of the 411 seniors plan to marry immediately after graduation.

A question concerning the possibility of a third world war brought out several odd results. Of the 199 seniors believing a war inevitable and another 136 saying perhaps it would occur, only 60 said they expected to fight in it.

Thirty - five didn't know and 26 said there would be no war. A total of 122 seniors said they didn't expect to fight in case of war, while 50 didn't know and 82 said perhaps they would do battle.

Remembering that there are 411 boys and girls graduating this year, a meager 72 are going to attend college or 17.4 per cent of the class.

* * *

FITY-TWO are planning to attend special schools; 26 are entering the Armed Services; 13 are taking up housekeeping, and 145 will work full time.

The students were asked what they would consider a good income for an established adult. Among the girls, $6,000 was the most popular figure with 32 voting for it.

The boys moved up the bracket somewhat, signifying $10,000 as the best figure. In second place came $6,000 for the boys and $8,000 for the girls.

Other figures for the girls were 17 for $5,000 and $10,000; 15 for $7,000; 13 for $4,000; five for $9,000, $6,500 and $5,500, and four for $7,500, $12,000 and $4,500.

Surprisingly enough boys weren't much higher in choosing their established incomes. A total of 18 were for 8,000; 15 for $7,000; 11 for $7,500; nine for $5,000; five for $5,500; six for $6,500, and four for $15,000, $9,000, $8,500, $12,000 and 4,500.

The students were asked what career they plan to follow eventually. Most popular among the girls was secretarial work, with 37,

Cost of Living Hits New Peak

Increase in April Largest since June

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs rose four-tenths of one per cent in April to another record high.

The rise was the largest for any month since last June.

In reporting the increase today, the Labor Department said it was largely due to a raise in food prices. Poor spring growing conditions were a factor in the upward movement of food costs.

The department consumers price index rose to 126.2 per cent of the 1947-49 base period. This is 1.9 per cent higher than a year earlier.

Nearly a million workers in the auto, farm equipment and related parts industries will get a 2-cent-an-hour pay raise because of the April living cost rise. Their union contracts provide for adjustments based on the consumers price index.

An adjustment of about one-cent an hour will go to an additional 150,000 workers, most of them employed by the Westinghouse Electric Manufacturing Co.

Similar pay raises may be due an additional 100,000 workers, mostly in aircraft plants. Their situation is uncertain because their labor contracts providing for adjustments have either expired or will soon do so.

Arnold Chase, Labor Department price chief, said the sizable living cost rise in April is not viewed as the beginning of a strong upward trend in consumers prices.

Chase said the April increase was particularly influenced by price boosts for fresh meats and vegetables. He said the food price increase was due to supply shortages brought about by adverse weather during the past few months.

Foods as a whole rose by 1½ per cent between March and April. Prices rose for most meats, particularly pork; fresh fruits, eggs, and for potatoes and tomatoes.

Chase said that because of the unusually large increase in food prices in April, he expected little change in May.

Salute to Class of 1960

Today all of Circleville and Pickaway County salute the graduates of the Class of 1960.

This week 411 seniors are being graduated from 14 city, county and area schools. Today's edition of The Circleville Herald is dedicated to these young citizens as they move on to their places in this active, nervous world.

Merchants throughout the area use this paper to offer their congratulations to each and every one of the 411 graduates. Included are stories and pictures of nearly every member of the Class of '60.

This community will depend in large part on these fine youths for leadership in the future. The least we can do is to offer congratulations and a pledge to let them find their place with freedom and encouragement.

Unofficial Delegate Tally Puts Nixon over Top Now

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tennessee and Florida Republican delegates joined the Nixon for president parade Tuesday, pushing the vice president well beyond the 666 majority needed for the GOP presidential nomination.

Tennessee's 28 delegates were instructed for Nixon at a state party convention. Florida's 26 delegates were captured without challenge in a primary.

The unofficial delegate standings, based on primary and state convention actions, plus Associated Press polls of uncommitted delegates, today showed:

Vice President Richard M. Nixon 686, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona 29 (Ariz. 14, Idaho 2, S.C. 13), Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York 1 (Ark.), uncommitted 124.

The 840 GOP delegates so far named represent nearly two-thirds of the total national convention roster of 1,331. A majority is 666.

Delegate picking today was confined to Illinois where a state convention will round out a Democratic National Convention delegation with 69 votes by naming delegates at large. District delegates were elected in an April 12 primary.

Delaware names Democratic delegates Thursday. Alabama Republicans and Iowa and Washington Democrats complete delegations on Saturday.

Florida Democrats added a favorite son Tuesday to the growing list of favorites and uncommitted delegations which will hold the balance of power in the Democratic National Convention.

It gave its 29-vote delegation to Sen. George Smathers without opposition in primary voting.

This left the unofficial score of Democratic delegate votes as:

Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts 330½, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas 111, Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri 60, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota 51½, Adlai E. Stevenson 16, others 146½, uncommitted 272½—total 988 out of a national convention vote of 1,521. It will take 761 to nominate for the Democrats.

Youth Drowns In Darby Creek

Swim Outing Fatal To Wayne Dingus, 13

A swimming outing at Big Darby Creek ended in tragedy for a 13-year-old Commercial Point boy yesterday.

Drowned was Wayne Dingus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Casto Dingus, Commercial Point. Companions said the boy disappeared under the water at about 3:30 p. m. The body was found at 7:02 p. m. following a desperate search by more than 100 volunteers from four counties.

The young friends swimming with Dingus were Michael Wilson, 14, Commercial Point, Charles Kuder, 13, Route 1, Orient, and Curtis Lemaster, 13, Route 2, Ashville.

The youths, all 8th grade students at Scioto School, said they were swimming in waist deep water behind the residence of William Thrailkill on Thrailkill Road in Scioto Twp. The three companions said Dingus was suddenly caught by swift current and pulled under.

* * *

DINGUS went down twice, the boys said, then went under the third time never to appear again. Lemaster told Sheriff Charles H. Radcliff he grabbed his friend, along with Kuder, but that they were unable to hold on.

The youths said they made a frantic, but unsuccessful search for about 15 minutes, then called on area residents for help. The sheriff's department was notified.

Sheriff Radcliff and Deputies Dwight Radcliff and Homer Adams launched an immediate search while wating of additional assistance. Finally at about 7 p. m. the body was found by Ralph Leist, fireman at the local courhouse.

Sheriff Radcliff said the youth was hooked under the arm by Leist. The same area had been probed time and again before contact finally was made.

The sheriff said the boy was

Chile Death Toll Nears 2,000 Mark

At Least 5 Mountain Peaks Erupt after Years of Silence

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Death and devastation mounted in southern Chile today in the wake of continuing earthquakes and tidal waves. Erupting volcanoes added to the horror.

Authorities put the toll at nearly 2,000 dead or missing and perhaps two million without homes. Official sources predicted the total would rise considerably when full reports were in from areas isolated by the communication breakdown.

The government had not even begun reckoning the property damage caused by the earth convulsions, but the Interior Ministry said it would run to many hundreds of millions of dollars. Reconstruction will take many years, it said.

Tidal waves spawned by the quakes were taking the heaviest toll. One surging wall of water carried 650 of the 800 residents of Quelen to death Sunday, the Interior Ministry said. Another wave killed more than 100 at Aleta Tuesday.

An 18-foot crest broke over the seaside resort of Mejuin Tuesday, drowning 120 persons. Other reports told of whole villages swept away by waves up to 24 feet high. At least 500 persons were missing in three southern provinces.

Two Chilean freighters, the Santiago and El Canelo, went down in mountainous seas off Puerto Corral. All aboard were believed lost.

New quakes spread terror, rocking the mountainous southern provinces. Landslides crashed into the Pacific at Maullin, a town of 1,500 about 600 miles south of Santiago.

At least five volcanoes were brought to life by the earth seizures and a new one was reported born.

Four volcanoes—Osorno, Caulle, Carral and Casablanca — were erupting in Osorno province about 500 miles south of Santiago, officials said. Communities in the area were ordered evacuated.

A pilot reported that 7,350-foot Puyehue, near Osorno, also was belching fire. In Cauhin province to the north a new volcano began spitting flame and smoke.

Honolulu, on Hilo, began burying its tidal wave dead today as rescue workers continued searching debris along the city's waterfront.

The toll: 38 dead, 21 missing and 53 injured in the disaster, Hawaii's worst in 14 years.

The shattered city's 26,000 residents are threatened now by other dangers. They have started spraying to combat disease. People have been asked to drink only boiled water. There is a massive sanitation problem.

The havoc brought by the four waves that struck early Monday morning sent unofficial damage estimates soaring to 60 million dollars. One hundred business firms were destroyed or damaged.

Meanwhile, Japan and the Western Pacific today reckoned its toll from the Chilean tidal

President To Report to U.S. Tonight On Collapse of Summit, Its Effect

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower reports to the American people tonight on the collapse of the summit conference and its effect on the policies of this and other free world nations.

He speaks out in the midst of political, diplomatic and legislative repercussions over the use of a U.S. spy plane brought down in the Soviet Union just before the summit blowup.

The Kremlin was urged by the White House to let the Soviet people listen to broadcasts on the President's 30-minute talk. James C. Hagerty, making the appeal through American newsmen, said "the Russian people, as well as the free people of the world have a right to hear it."

The President's address, from the White House at 7 p.m. EST will be carried live by CBS and ABC TV networks, and all major radio networks. It will be rebroadcast at 9 p.m. by NBC-TV.

The Voice of America arranged to broadcast the presidential message overseas in English and 38 other languages, including Russian.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee called Secretary of State Christian A. Herter for closed-door testimony Friday, starting a major inquiry into the downing of the U2 spy plane and the chain of events which followed it.

The hearings are to continue into next week, with testimony by Director Allen W. Dulles of the Central Intelligence Agency, Secretary of Defense Thomas S. Gates Jr., Gen. Nathan Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Agency.

Two other Senate probes were planned on a lesser scale—one by a special committee which keeps regular check on the Central Intelligence Agency and the other by a subcommittee studying government policy machinery.

A White House aide claims that the U.S. lied about the U2 plane to give pilot Francis G, Powers a "chance to escape".

Robert E. Merriam, deputy assistant to the President, Tuesday gave that version of the incident to the women's division of the Capitol Hill Club, a Republican group.

After the Soviet Union reported that a plane had crossed its borders, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and the State Department said that a U2 plane on a weather reconnaissance flight, was missing.

When the Soviets then announced the plane had been shot down and the pilot captured, the State Department admitted the plane had been on an espionage flight.

Merriam said Powers was under instructions to try to escape if he was forced down. He had elaborate equipment to do so, the White House aide said.

Merriam said the weather story was released to help Powers get out of the country if he were still alive.

Merriam did not say who had made the decision to make up the weather flight story.

Bogus Cloud Experiment Is Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cloudy skies forced government scientists at dawn today to postpone their attempt to create another colorful, artificial cloud 150 miles above the earth.

They had better luck at dusk Tuesday night. A rocket was launched from Wallops Island, Va., and filled the skies with color.

The cloud-producing rockets are part of a series of experiments by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. It is studying high altitude winds.

Today's scheduled shot was the third and last of NASA's current series. The agency said it had not decided when to try again.

The second shot was considered brilliantly successful. A Nike-Asp two-stage rocket ignited its load of sodium and thermite 50 miles above the earth. It left a twisting, steadily thickening trail of vapor that climbed swiftly to an altitude of more than 125 miles.

Camera stations along the Atlantic Coast photographed the spiraling vapor trail and the orange-white cloud.

Council Approves Suit Settlement

City Council last night in a special meeting appropriated $539 to settle out of court a personal injury suit.

The suit was filed against the City of Circleville in September, 1958 by Mrs. Florence Owens. She claimed the city was negligent in allowing a manhole cover to become loose and unprotected. She said she stepped onto it and suffered personal injury, at the corner of Western Ave. and Mound Sts., Sept. 22, 1956.

13-Zoom Salute Given Departing Air General

EGLIN AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. (AP)—The Air Force version of a 13-gun salute was rendered Maj. Gen. Joe W. Kelly as he left here Tuesday for reassignment to Scott AFB, Ill.

During the farewell ceremony, 13 supersonic jets cut in their afterburners as they flew by the reviewing stand, thus simulating the 13-gun salute usually given for a general.

Graduates Say...

compared to the boys first choice of engineering with 10 candidates.

* * *

RANKING SECOND and third respectively for the girls were teaching and nursing with 18 and 17. The boy's second choice was farming with nine and third was a laboring man with seven.

Other favorites among the girls were beautician, 11; housewife, 8; airline stewardess, 8; psychologist, medical field and office work, 3.

Among the boys' top favorites were Armed Services, 6; electronics, 7; teaching and draftsmen; 4, and construction, architecture, mechanic and automotives, 3. This question received more than 50 different job preferences.

A follow-up question asked the students what would be their line of work, 20 years from now, if they had their choice. Naturally the girls said marriage, while while the boys chimed in with running their own business.

Again there were more than 50 job preferences. Other top favorites of the girls were teaching, 19; secretarial, 14; beautician, 11; medicine, 12, and the ministry, 4.

The boys leaned toward several occupations which included engineering, 11; industry, 8; automotives, 7; a millionaire, and marriage, 6; retire, coaching and electronics, 4, and Armed Services and technician, 3.

* * *

DENOTING THE poor outlook in the agriculture field was the fact that only 10 out of the 411 graduating desired to enter that area of livelihood in this highly rural and farming community.

Several novel occupations were noted. Among the girls, one wanted to become a horse trainer and another wants to be a air-controlman on an aircraft carrier.

One boy desires to be a comedian, several hope to retire immediately and of course there were those who expected to become millionaires quite soon.

Jackson PTS Picks Officers

The last meeting for the Jackson Twp. Parent Teacher Society until September was held in the School Auditorium on May 9 at 8 p. m.

The first and second grade had charge of the devotional exercises The Lord's Prayer was led by Steve Kline. The pledge of Allegiance was led by Doris Ann Diffendal.

With the first and second grades participating they gave their version of "Love for Mother". The welcome to Mothers was by Terry Neff.

Mikie Kline presented a poster showing thanks to Mothers for all their food. Others participating were Cathy Beekman, Patsy Welsh, Glenna Holbrook, Sally Minorand Dennis Woods. Other first and second graders were also present and took part in the program.

The society received a card of thanks from Mr. and Mrs. George Kerns.

Another act was "Crime Dosen't Pay", with the band playing different numbers. The band then gave a salute to the Seniors for their last performance with the band. Those were Sue Ann Radcliff, Joy Maughmer, and Kathleen McCloud.

The nominating committee for new officers for the coming year was Mrs. Charles Huston, Mrs. Ben Walker, and Miss Mary Clark. They nominated for the coming year. Mrs. Jean Justus, President; Miss Dhel Renick, vice president; Mrs. John Diffendal, sectetary, and Mrs. Lloyd Minor, treasuer.

Refreshments were served in the cafteria by the teachers.

Grads Think Education Important

The Herald today completed a poll of Pickaway County and surrounding community 1960 graduates, asking them what things did they consider important for fulfilling their objectives in life.

Nine of the top objectives were listed and the seniors were requested to list them in order of their importance.

Topping the other eight objectives by 11 points was a good education but only 72 of the 411 graduates are going on to college. Running a close second was a happy marriage.

Dropping down some 200 points came the third place objective, a satisfying job. In fourth slot was raising good children. Fifth place was occupied by abiding by principles of religion.

* * *

FRIENDS thinking well of me rated sixth and doing what they think right was seventh. In eighth position was having enough money to buy the things they want.

In last place was living in a pleasant community. Leading the field in first place votes was a good education, followed by a happy marriage.

Then the seniors were asked, "Which of these things, if it were to occur, could most damage your objectives in life?"

They were asked to rate the nine objectives in order of most damage. This time it was an unhappy marriage leading the field.

An insufficient education was second and an unsatisfying job was third. Fourth place went to an unhappy family life and fifth was not abiding by their principles of religion.

An insufficient income came in sixth and lack of close friends was seventh. Not living up to my ideals was eighth and living in an unpleasant community was ranked last.

* * *

ANALYSIS of the poll finds that today's graduates are more interested in security and personal happiness than in there surroundings and monetary advancement.

They pay heed to their religious obligations, but feel that a good marriage and the raising of respectable children are slightly more important.

$293 Billion Debt

Bogus Cloud Experiment Is Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cloudy skies forced government scientists at dawn today to postpone their attempt to create another colorful, artificial cloud 150 miles above the earth.

They had better luck at dusk Tuesday night. A rocket was launched from Wallops Island, Va., and filled the skies with color.

The cloud-producing rockets are part of a series of experiments by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. It is studying high altitude winds.

Today's scheduled shot was the third and last of NASA's current series. The agency said it had not decided when to try again.

The second shot was considered brilliantly successful. A Nike-Asp two-stage rocket ignited its load of sodium and thermite 50 miles above the earth. It left a twisting, steadily thickening trail of vapor that climbed swiftly to an altitude of more than 125 miles.

Camera stations along the Atlantic Coast photographed the spiraling vapor trail and the orange-white cloud.

No further casualties were reported from Formosa or Okinawa, where three persons were killed when a 6-foot wall of water rolled into the east coast. The rice crop was seriously damaged.

Japanese police reported 95 dead, 85 missing and 854 injured, 2,621 ships sunken or washed out to sea, 4,079 homes destroyed, 41,800 flooded, dykes broken at 80 places and 251 bridges wrecked.

At least 150,000 persons were still homeless.

On the U.S. coast, Los Angeles-Long Beach harbor, hardhit by waves and tides, has been declared a disaster area.

Council Approves Suit Settlement

City Council last night in a special meeting appropriated $539 to settle out of court a personal injury suit.

The suit was filed against the City of Circleville in September, 1958 by Mrs. Florence Owens. She claimed the city was negligent in allowing a manhole cover to become loose and unprotected. She said she stepped onto it and suffered personal injury, at the corner of Western Ave. and Mound Sts., Sept. 22, 1956.

During the farewell ceremony, 13 supersonic jets cut in their afterburners as they flew by the reviewing stand, thus simulating the 13-gun salute usually given for a general.

Graduates Say...

compared to the boys first choice of engineering with 10 candidates.

* * *

RANKING SECOND and third respectively for the girls were teaching and nursing with 18 and 17. The boy's second choice was farming with nine and third was a laboring man with seven.

Other favorites among the girls were beautician, 11; housewife, 8; airline stewardess, 8; psychologist, medical field and office work, 3.

Among the boys' top favorites were Armed Services, 6; electronics, 7; teaching and draftsmen; 4, and construction, architecture, mechanic and automotives, 3. This question received more than 50 different job preferences.

A follow-up question asked the students what would be their line of work, 20 years from now, if they had their choice. Naturally the girls said marriage, while while the boys chimed in with running their own business.

Again there were more than 50 job preferences. Other top favorites of the girls were teaching, 19; secretarial, 14; beautician, 11; medicine, 12, and the ministry, 4.

The boys leaned toward several occupations which included engineering, 11; industry, 8; automotives, 7; a millionaire, and marriage, 6; retire, coaching and electronics, 4, and Armed Services and technician, 3.

* * *

DENOTING THE poor outlook in the agriculture field was the fact that only 10 out of the 411 graduating desired to enter that area of livelihood in this highly rural and farming community.

Several novel occupations were noted. Among the girls, one wanted to become a horse trainer and another wants to be a air-controlman on an aircraft carrier.

One boy desires to be a comedian, several hope to retire immediately and of course there were those who expected to become millionaires quite soon.

Grads Think Education Important

The Herald today completed a poll of Pickaway County and surrounding community 1960 graduates, asking them what things did they consider important for fulfilling their objectives in life.

Nine of the top objectives were listed and the seniors were requested to list them in order of their importance.

Topping the other eight objectives by 11 points was a good education but only 72 of the 411 graduates are going on to college. Running a close second was a happy marriage.

Dropping down some 200 points came the third place objective, a satisfying job. In fourth slot was raising good children. Fifth place was occupied by abiding by principles of religion.

* * *

FRIENDS thinking well of me rated sixth and doing what they think right was seventh. In eighth position was having enough money to buy the things they want.

In last place was living in a pleasant community. Leading the field in first place votes was a good education, followed by a happy marriage.

Then the seniors were asked, "Which of these things, if it were to occur, could most damage your objectives in life?"

They were asked to rate the nine objectives in order of most damage. This time it was an unhappy marriage leading the field.

An insufficient education was second and an unsatisfying job was third. Fourth place went to an unhappy family life and fifth was not abiding by their principles of religion.

An insufficient income came in sixth and lack of close friends was seventh. Not living up to my ideals was eighth and living in an unpleasant community was ranked last.

* * *

ANALYSIS of the poll finds that today's graduates are more interested in security and personal happiness than in there surroundings and monetary advancement.

They pay heed to their religious obligations, but feel that a good marriage and the raising of respectable children are slightly more important.

Jackson PTS Picks Officers

Time To Study Peace, Not War

For centuries human beings have been annihilating one another in battle as the ultimate means of deciding disputes. Leaders of each generation have deplored the resort to warfare as an arbiter of nations, science continues to develop weapons more terrible and men continue to kill one another in battle.

Apparently it never occurred to anyone to investigate the underlying causes of warfare in an attempt to pinpoint and possibly eliminate the most popular motives for attempts at international suicide.

One of the oldest and most respected organizations devoted to peace, the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, has started on a task described by its officials as the most important effort in the organization's 50-year history. It is attempting, through interviews with living participants, to uncover the reasons and developing action of five contemporary international conflicts.

A few years ago, the world witnessed the climax to many years of friction between France and Germany over the coal - rich Saar region. A plebiscite united the area with Germany in 1955. At that time, no one could have envisioned French and German officials sitting down together at a sort of Monday quarterback session, analyzing the many instances of stress and anger which finally led to a decision by ballot. That is what they are doing today.

Representatives of both disputants in the Saar conflict are discussing the history of that argument with CEIP officials in a fascinating game of reconstruction. By recalling the events still fresh in memory, both sides have contributed greatly to an understanding of the conflict's growth, including the discovery that the dispute was not nearly so serious to either France or Germany as it seemed to the remainder of the world. A major force in settling the dispute was international opinion, which apparently was more fearful than either adversary of the eventual outcome of the continuing debate.

Other recent skirmishes to be studied are Cyprus, the Italian - Yugoslav dispute over Trieste, the French Moroccan troubles which led to Moroccan independence and the Anglo - Iranian Oil contest.

Mortals have been puzzled by the behavior of each other for centuries, but to bring the participants in international disputes together for a discussion of their failings is a new and promising wrinkle in the pursuit of peace. Perhaps if enough of them confess to the stupidity which leads nations into war, future would-be aggressors will have their wings clipped before they attempt to use them.

A Dog Is a Girl's Best Friend

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — The dog, once man's best friend, today has become women's best friend, says Stephen Baker.

"In the cities the dog often takes the place of the old-fashioned marriage arranger. A dog is the best husband-catcher a single girl can find," he says.

Baker, a 6-foot-4 art director for a major advertising firm here, is author of "How to Live With a Neurotic Dog." He is convinced that if America has 25 million dogs, "at least 25 million of them are neurotic—and that's a conservative estimate."

The reason is that living a dog's life in a civilized world is bound to make anybody neurotic.

But he believes the best Leap Year investment a girl in search of matrimony can make is to buy a dog and take it for a walk.

"If they meet a bachelor out walking his dog, the twosome at once becomes a foursome. It's not a pickup. It's just one dog greeting another dog," he pointed out.

But in using a canine Cupid to help her track down a soulmate, Baker emphasized, it is important that a girl pick a pooch that best suits her own personality.

"A girl who is tall, elegant and aloof should choose a Russian wolfhound or Afghan hound, which gives the same appearance," Baker said.

"If she is friendly and outgoing, she should stroll with a French poodle. It is the friendliest of dogs."

Baker has owned dogs ranging from a Pekinese to a Newfoundland.

"No girl should walk with a cocker spaniel, a bulldog or a police dog," he said.

"The spaniel is the most neurotic of dogs, and raises the suspicion she is a complete neurotic herself.

"The bulldog is aggressive and masculine and makes her look that way. A shy man will cross the street rather than meet a girl with a police dog. He is afraid this is the kind of girl who would check his every movement if he married her."

What is the best combination of all?

"It is when a girl with a mongrel meets a man walking a mutt," said Baker decisively. "Each then realizes the other is broad-minded, nonconformist and not interested in trying to keep up with the Joneses.

"They should have a perfect marriage."

Rocky's Strategy Wrong

By George Sokolsky

Nikita Khrushchev is not an American citizen but he wants to run the American election. He would, for some reason, prefer to have someone like Adlai Stevenson as President. Khrushchev would like to control both the Republican and Democratic conventions. He is opposed to Richard Nixon as President of the United States. Nixon in Moscow had defended his country and his civilization and gave Khrushchev an intellectual trouncing.

On several occasions, Khrushchev went out of his way to declare his opposition to Nixon. These are remarks by Nikita Khrushchev, interfering in an American election—an intolerable impudence:

"I am afraid that if Mr. Nixon is instructed to hold these negotiations (Summit Conference) a situation might arise resembling the one of which the people say: 'To leave the cabbage to the care of the goat.' " (May 5, 1960)

"Therefore, we think that some time should be allowed to elapse so that the questions that have arisen should settle and so that those responsible for the determining of the policies of a country would analyze what kind of responsibility they placed upon themselves, having declared an aggressive course in their relations with the Soviet Union and other Socialist countries. Therefore, we would think that there is no better way out than to postpone the conference of the heads of government for approximately six to eight months." (May 16, 1960)

The last time that a foreign government attempted to interfere in American politics was when Citizen Genet, who was the Miniter of France to the United States, appointed in 1792, tried to force the United States to make war on Great Britain in support of the French revolutionary government. George Washington demanded that Genet mind his own business and had him dismissed. Genet was afraid to go back to France, settled in New York State, where he died on July 14, 1834.

Khrushchev's megalomania is so far advanced that he apparently believes that the American people will accept his choice for President of the United States. All Khrushchev needs to do is to say which of the candidates he favors and that man will be politically dead in this country.

Nelson Rockefeller, for some reason or other, believes that he has been designed by Providence to be President of the United States. Several months ago he made a trip about the country to make it possible for Republicans to get acquainted with him. The Republicans did not take too kindly to his excitement over his candidacy and he withdrew therefrom.

However, always when a man holds high position and possesses great wealth, he is surrounded by sycophants and so-called friends who tell him how great and noble he is and how the country would perish without him. Given a particular psychological complex, such a person cannot tolerate an opposite opinion. Therefore Nelson Rockefeller seems to have become convinced that he alone is worthy of the Republican nomination; that he alone can defeat whomsoever the Democrats will nominate and that he alone can meet the crisis which Khrushchev is preparing for the United States.

Rockefeller is now organizing a blitz after the fashion of Wendell Willkie. It is to be a tornado. As a matter of fact, a meeting of the New York State Republican politicians has been called for Wednesday to inaugurate this exciting escapade. And it is expected in the Rockefeller camp that Nixon will just fold up and die in the presence of the blitz.

There must be a conspiracy among the Democrats to favor Nelson Rockefeller. Two very competent Democratic politicians told me recently that the Republicans will nominate Nelson Rockefeller. They seemed very cheerful about it. The Democrats would be.

Richard Nixon had better begin campaigning hard, if he wants to be elected. On the one hand, he is being opposed by Nikita Khrushchev who has a candidate of his own; on the other, he has Nelson Rockefeller sniping at him, putting stumbling blocks in his way, and keeping a tight rein on the Republican delegation from New York State. The big mistake that Rockefeller is making is one that every experienced politician can advise him is stupid: If Rockefeller waits until 1964 or 1968, he is likely to be around to work for his nomination. He might have a chance. Should he push Nixon out in 1960 and be defeated, he will be the deadest politician ever seen.

Fremont Parole Hearing Planned

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Pardon and Parole Commission said today that it will rehear the application of Cliff S. Overmyer of Fremont, whose parole was rescinded earlier this year after authorities sought to link him with obscene literature sales.

Overmyer is already serving a term for selling obscene literature and was received at Ohio Penitentiary from Sandusky county Feb. 20, 1959. He was granted parole in February, but it was rescinded when the new charges were brought. However, he was acquitted of the later charges, and the commission said he is thus eligibe to apply for parole.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A VOLUPTUOUS BLONDE slithered into a public library, conveying the startling information that she had decided to improve her mind. "My boy friend wants I should read books, so I'll read books."

"What would you like to start with?" asked the librarian, suppressing a smile. "Something light or something comparatively heavy?"

"Who cares?" shrugged the blonde, "I've got my car outside."

When conductor Leonard Bernstein took the Philharmonic Orchestra on tour last year, he found this note under his hotel door one night: "I think you should know that the fellow in your band who plays the instrument that pulls in and out only bothered playing during the odd moments you were looking straight at him."

COULDN'T SAVE HER BOY—Mrs. Doris Holmes weeps as firemen (arrow) try to revive her 6-year-old son Randy, who decided to "dig in a hole" rather than play baseball. Two boys with him in the construction trench along the Golden State freeway in Los Angeles were standing instead of squatting down when the cave-in occurred. They were saved.

It Was All in Vain

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Casting a quick, slightly guilty glance around the lobby of a Knoxville hospital, a woman visitor produced a pair of scissors from her purse and proceeded to snip slips from the luxuriant plants.

Then, she carefully wrapped the greenery in paper moistened at a drinking fountain and hurried outside—apparently to transplant the pretty—and artificial—growth.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — Togetherness lasted less than a week.

Democrats and Republicans, in a moment of bewildered silence which they called a united front, rallied behind President Eisenhower when Premier Nikita Khrushchev humiliated him and wrecked the summit meeting.

But politics and the upcoming elections got the better of them.

Khrushchev performed on Monday, May 16. The togetherness here lasted until Thursday when it must have become suffocating to Adlai Stevenson. He attacked Eisenhower. Things got back to normal fast.

Now Democrats disagree with Democrats, Republicans with Republicans. And Democrats and Republicans are charging each other with being "soft on communism," a phrase not heard much since the days of Sen. Joseph McCarthy.

This a kind of bonus for Khrushchev.

Stevenson, who may once again get the Democratic nomination, said that while Khrushchev smashed the summit, Eisenhower handed the Soviet Premier a "crowbar and sledgehammer" through his administration's handling of the spy plane incident.

He said it was the obligation of the Democrats to expose and criticize any carelessness and mistakes by the Eisenhower administration.

Then a former Democratic national chairman, James A. Farley, lit into Stevenson for saying such a thing. Vice President Richard M. Nixon's press aide got his boss' name into print by saying Stevenson shocked him.

Thirty House Democrats in Congress broke their few days' silence with eight questions they want Eisenhower to answer on the "series of tragic blunders' connected with the spy plane and the summit.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, leader of the Senate Republicans, came up with an angle. He said Stevenson himself had helped torpedo the summit before it began.

He said Stevenson in a pre-summit interview with a Paris reporter advocated concessions to the Soviets. After that, Dirksen said, Khrushchev would have been a fool not to postpone the summit until after election day.

Stevenson at first denied the interview. Then he said the reporter "confused discussion with opinion." The French reporter stuck to his story.

Somewhere along the line Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, the front-runner among Democratic aspirants, got into the act with a comment in Portland, Ore. He said Eisenhower could have expressed regret to Khrushchev for the spy plane.

This was too much for Sen. Hugh Scott, a Pennsylvania Republican. He sent the Senate into an uproar by declaring Stevenson and Kennedy should be summoned before congressional investigators "to relieve themselves of the gross suspicion of appeasement."

Kennedy strode into the Senate, denied he was an appeaser. Scott said he'd accept Kennedy's say-so. But another Democrat, Sen. John A. Carroll of Colorado went after Scott. He accused him of playing raw politics.

Some Democrats wanted a Senate investigation of the spy plane disaster and the summit debacle. Some Republicans didn't. But some did. A New York Democrat, Rep. Samuel A. Stratton, deplored the action of the 30 Democrats who want Eisenhower to answer eight questions.

Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont) said Dirksen insinuated the Democrats, if elected next fall, would be "soft on communism." Paul Butler, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, said the Eisenhower administration had "too soft a policy toward Russia" for two years.

Disarmament Is Labeled As 'Must'

BOSTON (AP)—Dr. James R. Killian Jr., former presidential adviser said today the nation must not become cynical about reducing tension and armaments.

"I hope that we do not yield in our determination to make headway toward these goals, even though the way is slow and vexing and marked by rebuffs, and even though negotiation requires a patience greater even than Job's," Killian said.

The remarks of President Eisenhower's former scientific adviser were prepared for a Unitarian Development Fund luncheon, one of the events of the American Unitarian Assn. weeklong annual meeting here. Killian Monday was elected moderator of the denomination.

The United States, he said, has an inescapable responsibility to be militarily and economically strong and if this requres "sacrifice and harder work, then I am sure the American people will unhesitatingly accept the challege to achieve peak performance at whatever sacrifice."

In spite of this, he said, "it is now more imporant than ever that we not flag or falter in our efforts to reduce the hazard of hot war and to bring an end to cold war."

"I feel deeply that we should continue to seek, without loss of security to ourselves or other nations, some adquately controlled form of arms limitation if we are to reduce the terrible, the growing danger of world catastrophe," he said.

Floyd Hargrove confessed, then "unconfessed."

Mrs. Lois Clark did some confessing, too.

LOVE MURDER TRIAL UNDERWAY—Trial in a murder case that revealed a series of extra-marital love affairs of a beautiful mother of four children is underway in Painesville, O. Defendant is Floyd E. Hargrove, 34, who confessed, then "unconfessed" the Christmas Eve rifle killing of Charles R. Clark, 35, as Clark stood at the kitchen sink of the Clark home. Investigation brought another confession, from Clark's beautiful former model wife, that she had been having a love affair with Hargrove and had other love affairs.

If You Live Long Enough

- Head Injuries
- Personality

Q. I am 62 years old and have never been seriously ill. However, my hearing is not what it was a few years ago. I seem to hear other sounds like musical notes okay but have trouble understanding speech. Can this condition be helped?

A. Saints or sinners, mice or men, all animals who possess hearing will, if they live long enough, suffer from what doctors call presbycusis (pronounced prez-bi-koo'-sis). As we advance in years our hearing becomes somewhat dulled and it becomes harder and harder to understand speech. Presbycusis and other expressions of aging can develop early or late. The tissues of the body age at different rates. Biologically, aging is spotty. Some parts of the body may be considered "old" even before we are born. There is not much that can be done to prevent or cure presbycusis (difficulty in discriminating sounds) but in some cases a hearing aid helps. The only way to tell whether an aid would be useful is to have a complete and thorough examination by a doctor who specializes in hearing disorders.

Q. After a blow on the head or striking the head in falling, children often become sleepy and will often vomit. I have always heard that they should be kept awake. Is this the right thing to do?

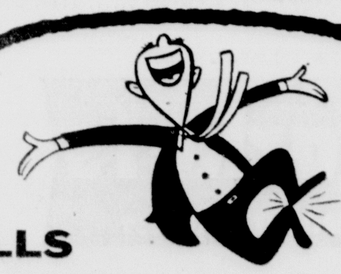

A. It is advisable to awaken a child who has been injured in this way from time to time but it is not necessary to keep him awake. By arousing the child every hour or so you can be sure that he has not lapsed into a stupor or coma. If he can not be awakened it is a sure sign of serious trouble. A doctor should be called at once.

Q. Does the personality change or do we stay pretty much the same throughout life?

A. Basic personality is difficult to change. However, by exercising self-discipline it is often possible to suppress certain objectionable aspects of personality and foster more desirable ones. Then too, as we grow older we tend to mature emotionally and this often improves personality.

Time To Study Peace, Not War

For centuries human beings have been annihilating one another in battle as the ultimate means of deciding disputes. Leaders of each generation have deplored the resort to warfare as an arbiter of nations, science continues to develop weapons more terrible and men continue to kill one another in battle.

Apparently it never occurred to anyone to investigate the underlying causes of warfare in an attempt to pinpoint and possibly eliminate the most popular motives for attempts at international suicide.

One of the oldest and most respected organizations devoted to peace, the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, has started on a task described by its officials as the most important effort in the organization's 50-year history. It is attempting, through interviews with living participants, to uncover the reasons and developing action of five contemporary international conflicts.

A few years ago, the world witnessed the climax to many years of friction between France and Germany over the coal - rich Saar region. A plebiscite united the area with Germany in 1955. At that time, no one could have envisioned French and German officials sitting down together at a sort of Monday quarterback session, analyzing the many instances of stress and anger which finally led to a decision by ballot. That is what they are doing today.

Representatives of both disputants in the Saar conflict are discussing the history of that argument with CEIP officials in a fascinating game of reconstruction. By recalling the events still fresh in memory, both sides have contributed greatly to an understanding of the conflict's growth, including the discovery that the dispute was not nearly so serious to either France or Germany as it seemed to the remainder of the world. A major force in settling the dispute was international opinion, which apparently was more fearful than either adversary of the eventual outcome of the continuing debate.

Other recent skirmishes to be studied are Cyprus, the Italian - Yugoslav dispute over Trieste, the French Moroccan troubles which led to Moroccan independence and the Anglo - Iranian Oil contest.

Mortals have been puzzled by the behavior of each other for centuries, but to bring the participants in international disputes together for a discussion of their failings is a new and promising wrinkle in the pursuit of peace. Perhaps if enough of them confess to the stupidity which leads nations into war, future would-be aggressors will have their wings clipped before they attempt to use them.

A Dog Is a Girl's Best Friend

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — The dog, once man's best friend, today has become women's best friend, says Stephen Baker.

"In the cities the dog often takes the place of the old-fashioned marriage arranger. A dog is the best husband-catcher a single girl can find," he says.

Baker, a 6-foot-4 art director for a major advertising firm here, is author of "How to Live With a Neurotic Dog." He is convinced that if America has 25 million dogs, "at least 25 million of them are neurotic—and that's a conservative estimate."

The reason is that living a dog's life in a civilized world is bound to make anybody neurotic.

But he believes the best Leap Year investment a girl in search of matrimony can make is to buy a dog and take it for a walk.

"If they meet a bachelor out walking his dog, the twosome at once becomes a foursome. It's not a pickup. It's just one dog greeting another dog," he pointed out.

But in using a canine Cupid to help her track down a soulmate, Baker emphasized, it is important that a girl pick a pooch that best suits her own personality.

"A girl who is tall, elegant and aloof should choose a Russian wolfhound or Afghan hound, which gives the same appearance," Baker said.

"If she is friendly and outgoing, she should stroll with a French poodle. It is the friendliest of dogs."

Baker has owned dogs ranging from a Pekinese to a Newfoundland.

"No girl should walk with a cocker spaniel, a bulldog or a police dog," he said.

"The spaniel is the most neurotic of dogs, and raises the suspicion she is a complete neurotic herself.

"The bulldog is aggressive and masculine and makes her look that way. A shy man will cross the street rather than meet a girl with a police dog. He is afraid this is the kind of girl who would check his every movement if he married her."

What is the best combination of all?

"It is when a girl with a mongrel meets a man walking a mutt," said Baker decisively. "Each then realizes the other is broad-minded, nonconformist and not interested in trying to keep up with the Joneses.

"They should have a perfect marriage."

Rocky's Strategy Wrong

By George Sokolsky

Nikita Khrushchev is not an American citizen but he wants to run the American election. He would, for some reason, prefer to have someone like Adlai Stevenson as President. Khrushchev would like to control both the Republican and Democratic conventions. He is opposed to Richard Nixon as President of the United States. Nixon in Moscow had defended his country and his civilization and gave Khrushchev an intellectual trouncing.

On several occasions, Khrushchev went out of his way to declare his opposition to Nixon. These are remarks by Nikita Khrushchev, interfering in an American election—an intolerable impudence:

"I am afraid that if Mr. Nixon is instructed to hold these negotiations (Summit Conference) a situation might arise resembling the one of which the people say: 'To leave the cabbage to the care of the goat.'" (May 5, 1960)

"Therefore, we think that some time should be allowed to elapse so that the questions that have arisen should settle and so that those responsible for the determining of the policies of a country would analyze what kind of responsibility they placed upon themselves, having declared an aggressive course in their relations with the Soviet Union and other Socialist countries. Therefore, we would think that there is no better way out than to postpone the conference of the heads of government for approximately six to eight months." (May 16, 1960)

The last time that a foreign government attempted to interfere in American politics was when Citizen Genet, who was the Miniter of France to the United States, appointed in 1792, tried to force the United States to make war on Great Britain in support of the French revolutionary government. George Washington demanded that Genet mind his own business and had him dismissed. Genet was afraid to go back to France, settled in New York State, where he died on July 14, 1834.

Khrushchev's megalomania is so far advanced that he apparently believes that the American people will accept his choice for President of the United States. All Khrushchev needs to do is to say which of the candidates he favors and that man will be politically dead in this country.

Nelson Rockefeller, for some reason or other, believes that he has been designed by Providence to be President of the United States. Several months ago he made a trip about the country to make it possible for Republicans to get acquainted with him. The Republicans did not take too kindly to his excitement over his candidacy and he withdrew therefrom.

However, always when a man holds high position and possesses great wealth, he is surrounded by sycophants and so-called friends who tell him how great and noble he is and how the country would perish without him. Given a particular psychological complex, such a person cannot tolerate an opposite opinion. Therefore Nelson Rockefeller seems to have become convinced that he alone is worthy of the Republican nomination; that he alone can defeat whomsoever the Democrats will nominate and that he alone can meet the crisis which Khrushchev is preparing for the United States.

Rockefeller is now organizing a blitz after the fashion of Wendell Willkie. It is to be a tornado. As a matter of fact, a meeting of the New York State Republican politicians has been called for Wednesday to inaugurate this exciting escapade. And it is expected in the Rockefeller camp that Nixon will just fold up and die in the presence of the blitz.

There must be a conspiracy among the Democrats to favor Nelson Rockefeller. Two very competent Democratic politicians told me recently that the Republicans will nominate Nelson Rockefeller. They seemed very cheerful about it. The Democrats would be.

Richard Nixon had better begin campaigning hard, if he wants to be elected. On the one hand, he is being opposed by Nikita Khrushchev who has a candidate of his own; on the other, he has Nelson Rockefeller sniping at him, putting stumbling blocks in his way, and keeping a tight rein on the Republican delegation from New York State. The big mistake that Rockefeller is making is one that every experienced politician can advise him is stupid: If Rockefeller waits until 1964 or 1968, he is likely to be around to work for his nomination. He might have a chance. Should he push Nixon out in 1960 and be defeated, he will be the deadest politician ever seen.

Fremont Parole Hearing Planned

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Pardon and Parole Commission said today that it will rehear the application of Cliff S. Overmyer of Fremont, whose parole was rescinded earlier this year after authorities sought to link him with obscene literature sales.

Overmyer is already serving a term for selling obscene literature and was received at Ohio Penitentiary from Sandusky county Feb. 20, 1959. He was granted parole in February, but it was rescinded when the new charges were brought. However, he was acquitted of the later charges, and the commission said he is thus eligibe to apply for parole.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — Togetherness lasted less than a week.

Democrats and Republicans, in a moment of bewildered silence which they called a united front, rallied behind President Eisenhower when Premier Nikita Khrushchev humiliated him and wrecked the summit meeting.

But politics and the upcoming elections got the better of them.

Khrushchev performed on Monday, May 16. The togetherness here lasted until Thursday when it must have become suffocating to Adlai Stevenson. He attacked Eisenhower. Things got back to normal fast.

Now Democrats disagree with Democrats, Republicans with Republicans. And Democrats and Republicans are charging each other with being "soft on communism," a phrase not heard much since the days of Sen. Joseph McCarthy.

This a kind of bonus for Khrushchev.

Stevenson, who may once again get the Democratic nomination, said that while Khrushchev smashed the summit, Eisenhower handed the Soviet Premier a "crowbar and sledgehammer" through his administration's handling of the spy plane incident.

He said it was the obligation of the Democrats to expose and criticize any carelessness and mistakes by the Eisenhower administration.

Then a former Democratic national chairman, James A. Farley, lit into Stevenson for saying such a thing. Vice President Richard M. Nixon's press aide got his boss' name into print by saying Stevenson shocked him.

Thirty House Democrats in Congress broke their few days' silence with eight questions they want Eisenhower to answer on the "series of tragic blunders' connected with the spy plane and the summit.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, leader of the Senate Republicans, came up with an angle. He said Stevenson himself had helped torpedo the summit before it began.

He said Stevenson in a pre-summit interview with a Paris reporter advocated concessions to the Soviets. After that, Dirksen said, Khrushchev would have been a fool not to postpone the summit until after election day.

Stevenson at first denied the interview. Then he said the reporter "confused discussion with opinion." The French reporter stuck to his story.

Somewhere along the line Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, the front-runner among Democratic aspirants, got into the act with a comment in Portland, Ore. He said Eisenhower could have expressed regret to Khrushchev for the spy plane.

This was too much for Sen. Hugh Scott, a Pennsylvania Republican. He sent the Senate into an uproar by declaring Stevenson and Kennedy should be summoned before congressional investigators "to relieve themselves of the gross suspicion of appeasement."

Kennedy strode into the Senate, denied he was an appeaser. Scott said he'd accept Kennedy's say-so. But another Democrat, Sen. John A. Carroll of Colorado went after Scott. He accused him of playing raw politics.

Some Democrats wanted a Senate investigation of the spy plane disaster and the summit debacle. Some Republicans didn't. But some did. A New York Democrat, Rep. Samuel A. Stratton, deplored the action of the 30 Democrats who want Eisenhower to answer eight questions.

Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont) said Dirksen insinuated the Democrats, if elected next fall, would be "soft on communism." Paul Butler, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, said the Eisenhower administration had "too soft a policy toward Russia" for two years.

"I feel deeply that we should continue to seek, without loss of security to ourselves or other nations, some adquately controlled form of arms limitation if we are to reduce the terrible, the growing danger of world catastrophe," he said.

Floyd Hargrove confessed, then "unconfessed." Mrs. Lois Clark did some confessing, too.

LOVE MURDER TRIAL UNDERWAY—Trial in a murder case that revealed a series of extra-marital love affairs of a beautiful mother of four children is underway in Painesville, O. Defendant is Floyd E. Hargrove, 34, who confessed, then "unconfessed" the Christmas Eve rifle killing of Charles R. Clark, 35, as Clark stood at the kitchen sink of the Clark home. Investigation brought another confession, from Clark's beautiful former model wife, that she had been having a love affair with Hargrove and had other love affairs.

Ladies Keep Pitching

DELAFIELD, Wis. (AP) — For three years the all male Reconteurs Club sponsored an essay contest on the subject, "Why Men are Better Writers than Women." Each year a woman won first prize.

This year the club changed the subject to "Why Men are More Romantic than Women."

At last a man won. He was Conrad Rinelli of Milwaukee.

His wife, Victoria, however, placed third.

Critic of critics was Disraeli who observed: "Critics are the men who have failed in literature and art."

AAUW Honors Mrs. Worrell At Final Meeting of Year

The Circleville Branch of the American Association of University Women held its final meeting of the season, Monday at the home of Miss Ruth Montelius.

Mrs. Alfred Johnson presided over the business session with the attention focused on plans for the coming year. Study groups proposed for the club year are in literature, drama, history, music appreciation and art appreciation.

The literature group plans to read a book each month and meet to discuss it. The first book under consideration is James Mitchener's "Hawaii" with Mrs. Jack Gray as discussion leader. The drama group will also meet monthly to discuss worthwhile plays and the members plan to attend some stage productions in Columbus.

The history group has planned a program in two parts. A study of English history from 1066 on and the members will consider the American Revolution under the topics "Taking off the Marble Cloak", "From Foreign Shores," "Traitors and Espionage", and "Women of the Revolution". Famous personages pertaining to each topic will be studied. In preparation for the meetings, readings will be sent to each member of the Circleville Branch.

Mrs. William Ford was installed as the new vice president of the Branch. Working with her to plan the program for the coming year will be Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Glenn McCoy, Mrs. William Sprague, Mrs. Robert Smith, and Miss Carolyn Fudge.

Miss Dorothy Smedley was in charge of Monday's program. She presented Mrs. Ruth Mougey Worrell, who spoke on "The Part Women Play as Citizens of the World".

Mrs. Worrell lives in Columbus, but she started her career as a teacher at Ohio University. Later she became one of the first to become interested in religious pageantry, traveling over the U. S. in the work. She was first executive secretary of the state council of Church Women in Ohio and became the first national executive secretary of Church Women. It was in that capacity that she took a trip around the world and was named by the state department as an ambassador of good will. In 1947 she was a member of the commission sent by the Church World Service to study the need in Europe. She is also recognized nationally, and listed in "Who's Who in America".

Mrs. Worrell told the women of AAUW the only way you can achieve peace in the world is by learning to know people and being able to communicate. She said that the world, and particularly the women of the world, is now undergoing a revolution. Women can now vote in most countries and take a more active roll in politics, education and business than ever before. American women lag far behind their Asian sisters in this respect.

Mrs. Worrell used her personal experiences to point out customs, conditions and problems in various parts of the world. She pictured the women she had met to show differences in positions and capabilities.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Try a Little Understanding

DEAR ABBY: We have an intolerable situation at our house and I'm heading for a nervous breakdown if it isn't solved soon.

Our little boy, 3, is our problem. He cries and comes to where we are and we have to put him in bed again. I think if a child is not ill he should go to sleep after a story and goodnight kiss.

For several months he has been getting up three and four times a night after being tucked in bed.

I say he should be spanked, but my husband feels sorry for him and won't discipline him. This is making a wreck out of me. How can I make my husband see how wrong he is?

WORRIED MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Your husband isn't wrong—you are. The child comes to you because he needs the feeling of security. He just wants to know that you are there in case he needs you. Don't punish him. Give him the love he is asking for and in a short time he'll sleep soundly through the night.

DEAR ABBY: I am a single man and have been since my divorce in 1953. I have been keeping company with a woman who is also divorced. She says she loves me, but she continues to be very palsywalsy with all her husband's clan. This has caused several arguments between us. (By the way, there is no excuse for her seeing them because she and her "ex" had no children.) To top it off, according to some of the stories this woman told me (some months back) this whole kit and kaboodle belongs in jail. I told her to choose between all her ex-relatives and me. She said she would like to keep their friendship and mine, too. What should I do?

MAC

DEAR MAC: The woman obviously has two faces. And a man who would put up with her obviously has two heads. Turn tail—and run!

DEAR ABBY: If there is a worse mess in all this world, I wish you would point it out to me so I can feel better. I was a widow with a 10-year-old daughter when I met Mr. X, who was as fast a talker as ever I heard. Before I knew it I was married to him. I kept working and all I ever got out of my marriage was a "Mrs." in front of my name.

My daughter is now 16. Well, this no good bum of a husband came to me and asked for a divorce so he could marry my daughter and hide the shame he brought on her. She is all for it. She is his legally adopted daughter, too. Some say to throw them both out. Others say to have him arrested. What should I do? I have no money for lawyers.

BIG MESS

DEAR MESS: Consult your Family Service Association and get local legal aid, which you certainly need. If you have no influence over your daughter, perhaps a social worker or clergyman could convince her that marriage to her step-father, under any circumstances, would be disastrous.

"What's your problem?" Write to Abby in care of this paper. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Culinary Charmers

SUNDAY DINNER
Consomme Bellevue
Roast Stuffed Chicken with Oven-brown Potatoes
Spanish Corn — Spinach
Rolls — Relishes
Bananas and Grapes — Beverage

CONSOMME BELLEVUE

Ingredients: 1 can (12½ ounces) clear chicken broth, 1 bottle (8 ounces) clam juice, 3 tablespoons heavy cream, salt, paprika.

Method: If chicken broth is not fat - free, pour it through a strainer lined with a double thickness of muslin to trap fat. Turn broth into saucepan with clam juice and heat .Whip cream with a dash of salt; a small whirl - type beater that is operated with one hand is perfect for whipping a small amount of cream. Pour soup into 4 cups; top each with a blob of cream; sprinkle cream with paprika. Serve each cup as it is topped with cream and paprika so cream will look puffy as it is served. Makes 4 small servings. Recipe may be doubled.

If you are lucky enough to find fresh dill in your market, you'll find it is delightful added to potato salad, potato soup, stuffed eggs or chicken broth.

Girl Scout Troop No. 784 held its annual Mother - Daughter tea and court of awards Tuesday in the social rooms of the Presbyterian Church.

Members of the Beaver Patrol presented the skit song "Sam Gets the Gong". Linda Bockrath was narrator and Debbie Reefer was responsible for sound effects. Others in the cast were: Cynthia Porter, Karen Lane and Anne Spicer.

An "Atomic Hat Show" was given by the Carnation and Woodchuck Patrols. Connie Lindsey was the announcer and Lynne Kifer the narrator. The models who wore their own creations were: Christine Goeller, Marilyn Bingman, Marsha Brobst, Marcia Brehmer, Alicia Hart, Leanna Brevard, Jeannelle West, Penny Strupper, Christine Jackson and Joyce McRoberts.

At the close of the program, all the girls received their second class "Cook and My Troop Badges".

Refreshments were served by: Mrs. Charles Rihl, Mrs. Emerson Spicer and Mrs. Donavan Hughes, the leaders of the troop.

Legion Makes Plans at Meet

The American Legion Auxiliary of Hall-Adkins Post No. 134 held its meeting at the legion home, Monday with Mrs. Mark Coffland, presiding.

Mrs. Annette Merriman read the minutes of the last meeting. Mrs. Besse Simison reported that nine members and guests served peach pie, coffee and potato chips and distributed cigarettes to 35 patients at the regular monthly party at the Veterans Hospital in Chillicothe, Monday.

Mrs. Coffland announced that the 7th District Summer Conference will be held June 8 in Hillsboro and a girls State Tea of Unit No. 62 will be held in Chillicothe, June 12.

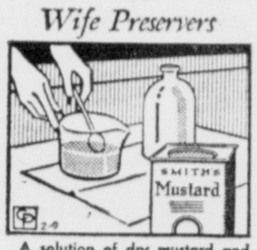

Mrs. B. T. Hedges was elected delegate to the State Convention to be held in Columbus at Central High School, July 22-24.

Mrs. Coffland appointed Mrs. Besse Simison, Mrs. Frank Webbe and Mrs. Hedges as the nominating committee for the new officers to be installed at the next meeting.

Plans were made for the annual sale of the veteran made poppies, Friday and Saturday. The proceeds will go to the rehabilitation of patients in the Chillicothe Veterans Hospital and Child Welfare.

The next meeting will be the installation dinner at Kern's Restaurant, June 27. Members will be contacted for reservations.

A solution of dry mustard and water makes an excellent bottle deodorizer. Allowed to stand in the bottle for several hours, it will leave it fresh and sweet.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Try a Little Understanding

DEAR ABBY: We have an intolerable situation at our house and I'm heading for a nervous breakdown if it isn't solved soon.

Our little boy, 3, is our problem. He cries and comes to where we are and we have to put him in bed again. I think if a child is not ill he should go to sleep after a story and goodnight kiss.

For several months he has been getting up three and four times a night after being tucked in bed.

I say he should be spanked, but my husband feels sorry for him and won't discipline him. This is making a wreck out of me. How can I make my husband see how wrong he is?

WORRIED MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Your husband isn't wrong—you are. The child comes to you because he needs the feeling of security. He just wants to know that you are there in case he needs you. Don't punish him. Give him the love he is asking for and in a short time he'll sleep soundly through the night.

DEAR ABBY: I am a single man and have been since my divorce in 1953. I have been keeping company with a woman who is also divorced. She says she loves me, but she continues to be very palsywalsy with all her husband's clan. This has caused several arguments between us. (By the way, there is no excuse for her seeing them because she and her "ex" had no children.) To top it off, according to some of the stories this woman told me (some months back) this whole kit and kaboodle belongs in jail. I told her to choose between all her ex-relatives and me. She said she would like to keep their friendship and mine, too. What should I do?

MAC

DEAR MAC: The woman obviously has two faces. And a man who would put up with her obviously has two heads. Turn tail—and run!

DEAR ABBY: If there is a worse mess in all this world, I wish you would point it out to me so I can feel better. I was a widow with a 10-year-old daughter when I met Mr. X, who was as fast a talker as ever I heard. Before I knew it I was married to him. I kept working and all I ever got out of my marriage was a "Mrs." in front of my name.

My daughter is now 16. Well, this no good bum of a husband came to me and asked for a divorce so he could marry my daughter and hide the shame he brought on her. She is all for it. She is his legally adopted daughter, too. Some say to throw them both out. Others say to have him arrested. What should I do? I have no money for lawyers.

BIG MESS

DEAR MESS: Consult your Family Service Association and get local legal aid, which you certainly need. If you have no influence over your daughter, perhaps a social worker or clergyman could convince her that marriage to her step-father, under any circumstances, would be disastrous.

"What's your problem?" Write to Abby in care of this paper. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Culinary Charmers

SUNDAY DINNER
Consomme Bellevue
Roast Stuffed Chicken with Oven-brown Potatoes
Spanish Corn — Spinach
Rolls — Relishes
Bananas and Grapes — Beverage

CONSOMME BELLEVUE

Ingredients: 1 can (12½ ounces) clear chicken broth, 1 bottle (8 ounces) clam juice, 3 tablespoons heavy cream, salt, paprika.

Method: If chicken broth is not fat - free, pour it through a strainer lined with a double thickness of muslin to trap fat. Turn broth into saucepan with clam juice and heat. Whip cream with a dash of salt; a small whirl - type beater that is operated with one hand is perfect for whipping a small amount of cream. Pour soup into 4 cups; top each with a blob of cream; sprinkle cream with paprika. Serve each cup as it is topped with cream and paprika so cream will look puffy as it is served. Makes 4 small servings. Recipe may be doubled.

If you are lucky enough to find fresh dill in your market, you'll find it is delightful added to potato salad, potato soup, stuffed eggs or chicken broth.

Marilyn Monroe Movie Is Much-Delayed Project

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Tony Randall and Wilfred Hyde White were driving toward the "Let's Make Love" set.

Randall (worriedly): Oh dear, I have a line today, I think. Something like "What a life!"

White (soothingly): Cheer up, old boy. If you need help with it, call on me.

Randall: Do you have any lines today?

White: Heavens, no. I haven't had a line in a fortnight.

Such grim humor has helped keep a hardy band of male performers from blowing their tops in the past six months. They are engaged in supporting Marilyn Monroe in one of the weirdest film projects in history.

First, Gregory Peck was supposed to play the lead, then he dropped out. Then there was a search for another star, with Frenchman Ives Montand winning out. Then there was the actors' strike. Then there is Marilyn.

On a recent day, Marilyn was scheduled to arrive at 10:30, came at 3, did her first scene at 4:34. A film that was scheduled for 83 days will take six months, ending, it is hoped, June 10.

"Nothing ever goes as it is scheduled," says Director George Cukor cheerfully.

Montand was under the gun to fulfill a concert date in Japan. When it became apparent he could not make it, the Japanese promoters were paid off.

Less fortunate was Frankie Vaughan. Unlike other actors who get weekly salaries, the British entertainer is drawing a flat fee for the picture. He has had to pass up thousands of pounds for engagements at home, where he is a hot ticket.

Urbane Britisher White told of hurrying to finish a film in England so he could be here for the November starting date. He began "Let's Make Love" in mid-Janurary, and his 10-week stay has stretched to six months.

Importations May 'Ruin' U.S. Fashions

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

America's worship of anything imported may sink the American fashion industry, says Oleg Cassini, designer, dress manufacturer and man-about-gown.

"I expect my business to fall off one million dollars next year, just because of the hysteria of American stores over French copies," says the suave Cassini. "All over the country stores are displaying French fashions—some are copies of couture designs and others are French ready-mades. Within a month of the Paris openings you'll see copies selling for as low as $14.95.

"Some stores even have the nerve to ask well-known American designers, like me, to make French copies. That's the ultimate insult."

Cassini points out that U.S. stores now can buy French ready-made clothes at much less than they would cost here, even including import duties. And the glamor of a French label continues to dazzle the American public, even if it's sewed on a gunny sack.

Cassini announces that he is tired of the American custom of following every new fashion silhouette introduced in Paris.

"No matter how ugly, grotesque and unflattering a new style may be, Americans rush to buy it and copy it, if it's first shown in Paris."

The rage for French labels is more widespread now than ever before, says Cassini. And if American designers don't take a firm stand, he says, many of them are going to find themselves out of business.

LUCREZIA BORI ILL—One of the world's great opera divas, Lucrezia Bori, 72, is in a coma in New York's Roosevelt hospital following a brain hemorrhage. Miss Bori, a soprano, was a favorite at the New York Metropolitan Opera house from 1912 to 1915, and from 1921 until her retirement in 1936.

'HAVANA ROSE' — Pepita Riera, who once fought with Fidel Castro's forces in the mountains of Cuba, tells reporters in Miami, Fla., how she turned against his government to become a "Havana Rose," a la the "Tokyo Rose" of World War II, to broadcast to the anti-Castro forces opposing his regime.

DES MOINES (AP) — Several young women couldn't have been more startled when workers for a candidate for governor pinned political badges on them in a hotel lobby. The young women are members of the Georgian State Dancers — from Russia.

Prosecutor Shuns Vote Machine Suit

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — most of the malfunctioning of boting machines here in the primary there is no basis for a suit against the machine manufacturer, Mahoning County's prosecutor said Tuesday.

Prosecutor Thomas Biel gave this opinion in refusing to file a suit for David Hill, a Youngstown attorney.

Another Youngstown attorney, Joseph O'Neil, Tuesday asked the Board of Elections for a recount of the Democratic prosecutor nomination contest. O'Neill lost by 26 board officials said the recount would take four or five days.

Sam Houston, first president of the Republic of Texas, ran away from his Tennessee wilderness home at the age of 15 and joined a tribe of Cherokee Indians.

Housewives Must Report Worker Wages

More than 100,000 housewives throughout the country may be violating the social security laws by not reporting the wages thay pay their household help, according to officials of the Social Security Administration.

Many household employes are still not being reported for social security by their employers, although their cash wages from each employer may amount to well over $50 in a three-month period. This is especially true of "day workers" who work for several employers during the course of a week.

Each employer who pays such a worker a total of $50 cash wages during the calendar quarter must file a return showing the name and social security number of the worker, the amount of her wages, and the social security taxes due.

Some employers may not understand their responsibilities under the law. As little pay as $4 a week amounts to more than $50 in a quarter. Also, some household employes may have asked their employers not to file the returns because they do not want to have their share of the social security tax taken out of their pay. The law, however, holds the employer responsible for making the returns and paying the taxes.

If not detected by the Internal Revenue Service through routine inforcement procedures, employers who are not filing reports may later be called for a reckoning in a number of different ways.

* * *

THIS COULD happen when a worker applies to her socil security office for retirement or disability benefits, or when a survivor of a worker applies for social security benefits after the worker's death. Also, a worker any time can ask the Social Security Aministration for a record of her social security credits and ask for an investigation of any credits missing from that record. An employer found delinquent under those conditions might be liable for the entire tax (worker's and employer's) for several years back, plus interest and penalties.

The social security tax on wages in 1960 is six per cent, three per cent to be deducted from the employe's wages, and a matching 3 per cent to be contributed by the employer.

Any housewife who employs domestic help can receive the reporting form every three months by writing to the District Director of Internal Revenue.

The Social Security Administration has a little booklet of social security information for household employers, "Social Security for Your Household Employee," which contains a post card she can send to the District Director of Internal Revenue, asking that she be put on the mailing list.

Household workers who would like to know more about their rights and obligations under social security should get in touch with the nearest social security office and ask for the pamphlet, "good News for Household Workers."

The Social Security District Office is located at 32 W. Main St., Chillicothe, Ohio. Office hours are 8:45 a. m. to 4:45 p. m. Monday through Friday.

The Ashville Elementary School will conduct its pre-school clinic from noon until 3 p. m. this Thursday for all school children entering the first grade at Ashville this fall.

All children must be 6 years old on September 1 to be eligible to enter the first grade this fall. Those whose birthdays fall between September 1 and November 1 are asked to attend the clinic also and these children will be given a test during the summer months to determine if they are eligible to attend also.

The wedding date of Miss Nancy Klamforth and John Swingle has been changed to Sunday, May 29 due to John being called to report for duty with the armed services. The wedding was originally scheduled for June 19. The wedding will be held at 3:30 p. m. in the Zion Lutheran Church in Groveport.

The Senior Luther League of the First English Lutheran Church recently held election of officers. The new officers are Rebecca Rockey, president; William Cromley, vice president; Marty Dore', secretary; and Jim Brown, treasurer.

The Bastian Funeral Home moved the following persons to hospitals this past Sunday; Kenneth West, corner of Routes 316 and 104, to Dayton Veterans Hospital and Mrs. Ethel Fridley to Mercy Hospital.

AN INVITATION has been extended to all interested persons to attend a service honoring the Rev. and Mrs. Newton Mantle at Grace Methodist Church, 1401 W. Main St., Springfield, on the occasion of his retirement.

The service will be Sunday with worship at 10:30 a. m., basket dinner at 12:15 p. m. (out - of - town guests need not bring table service or food) and an afternoon program at 2 p. m.

The Maneles served the Ashville Methodist Charge from 1930 to 1933.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Cromley and Mrs. Stanley Beckett were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Byron P. Redman, Abington Road, Columbus.

The Pickaway County Red Cross announced its summer schedule for the Water Safety Program at the Ashville pool. Starting July 11, and continuing for two weeks, Intermediate lessons will be given at 9 a. m. and Beginner's lessons at 10:30 a. m.

Starting July 25, and continuing two weeks, swimmers lessons will be given at 9 a. m. and beginners lessons at 10:30 a. m.

You may register your child by writing or calling the Pickaway County Red Cross office at Circleville.

Registrations are also being accepted for Junior Life Saving and Adult lessons. The dates for these two classes will be announced at a later date.

Any pupil who has completed his Junior Life Saving and would like to help instruct the Ashville classes is asked to notify the office also.

Ex-Mental Patient Held For Slayings

COOPERSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A former mental patient sought in the slayings of his wife and neighbor was captured late Tuesday as he sat propped against a tree trunk, wounded by his own shotgun.

A search party came across Lloyd E. Shuffstall, 51, in a wooded area about a mile from his home near this northwestern Pennsylvania hamlet.

The lower part of Shuffstall's chin was shot off. Weakened by loss of blood, he offered no resistance. His capture ended an intensive 17-hour manhunt.

State police Capt. John Chrin quoted the unemployed foundry worker as saying he shot himself shortly after the slaying of his wife, Vera Rose, 47, mother of 10, and Harold DuPont, 43-year-old machinist.

DuPont was ambushed and shot on a dirt road a mile from the Shuffstall home. Mrs. Shuffstall was killed in the bedroom of her home. Both were shot with a 30-30 rifle.

State police said a son, Derald, 24, told them DuPont had been "keeping company" with Mrs. Shuffstall some time ago.

Shuffstall, released from a mental institution only a week ago, was treated at a hospital and lodged in Venango County jail at Franklin.

Kochs Host Association At Pickaway County Home

The Ohio Superintendents and Matrons Assn. held its quarterly meeting last week at the Pickaway County Children's Home.

Winfield Koch, superintendent of the Children's Home here, is president of the State organization. He and Mrs. Koch were hosts to 36 other home officials from various parts of Ohio.

Ralph Starkey, Pickaway County Juvenile Officer, was guest speaker following the noon meal. He talked on "Needs of Detention Homes in Ohio" and "Juvenile Problems".

A delicious dinner was served under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Koch.

* * *

SPECIAL guests included Commissioners Wayne Hines and Clyde Michel and Pickaway County Home Board Members Roy White, Kenneth Shepler and Mrs. Willison Leist. Mrs. Leila McAbee, a former board member, was a special guest.

Two board members from Jefferson County also were special guests.

Following the dinner which included several courses, the group toured the building and grounds. The assembled group unanimously praised the home here, commenting on its lovely appearance, cleanliness and excellent state of repair.

The visitors especially commended the Pickaway County Board of Commissioners for its interest and efforts in making the local home a fine and well - kept establishment.

The Association expressed thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Koch for their genial hospitality and the excellent dinner.

'Truth Serum' Testimony Draws Fire

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Attorneys defending Floyd E. Hargrove, who is being tried here on first-degree murder charges in the sniper slaying of Charles R. Clark of Mentor, are vigorously opposing any testimony based on oral statements their client allegedly made to police.

Judge W. S. Slocum twice Tuesday sustained defense attorney Louis A. Turi's objection to the prosecution's question related to things Hargrove allegedly said while under the effect of sodium amytal, a so-called "truth serum."

Each time Turi objected, a private conference was called. The jury was dismissed for the day at 3:20 p.m., when the second consultation was ordered.

The state's only witness Tuesday was Lake County Sheriff William B. Evans. When Asst. Prosecutor John F. Clair Jr. asked him how he knew where to look for the rifle allegedly purchased by Hargrove in Chardon the day before the slaying, Turi's first objection to this line of questioning was voiced.

Evans said that on Jan. 4, after he and other investigators had talked with Hargrove, the group went to Kirtland Hills to look for the rifle. Evans said the weapon was found in a stream later that morning by a Mentor Twp. fireman.

When Clair asked, "Did you (Evans) at any time ask if he shot Charles Clark?" Turi again objected, and the second conference was convened.

3 DuPonters Transferred

Three more local employes have been transferred to DuPont's new "Mylar" film plant at Florence, S. C.

Assigned to Florence were J. E. Canning Jr., R. R. Garey and D. F. Davis. They will join several other local employes already transferred to the South Carolina plant which is similar to the one at Circleville.

Canning and his wife, Barbara, live at 981 Lynwood Ave. Garey, wife Alice Lee, and children Robert Jr., Randolph Lee, William W. and Ann Harvie, live at Knollwood Village.

Davis and his wife, Louella, lived at 164 E. High St. They have two children, Douglas Jr., and Debra. Jr., and Debra.

2 Dayton Cops Fired After Prisoner Escapes

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Two Dayton police officers have been relieved from duty following the escape of a prisoner from their paddy wagon. Capt. F. B. Smith said patrolmen C. T. Everett and W.E. Walker failed to handcuff the prisoners in the wagon, left the door unlocked and failed to have an officer in back with the prisoners—all required procedures.

John W. Dunleavy, 44, a transient arrested for vagrancy, fled the wagon when it stopped for a red light. Seven other prisoners, one a woman, made no attempt to escape.

Petunia Seeds Expensive

GREYBULL, Wyo. (AP) — Frank Copp found out five ounces of petunia seed is a lot of petunia seed.

He ordered that much from a seed firm in Billings, Mont. The firm wrote Copp to ask if he was certain he wanted five ounces.

Copp wasted no time replying he didn't. The seed sells for 500 an ounce.

Big Feet Helped

SALEM, Va. (AP) — Benny L. Tice of Roanoke bought a 1951 sedan here for 36 cents.

"I didn't use my head, just my feet," said Tice. The bargain was offered to the man with the biggest feet. Tice wears No. 15 shoes.

"I needed the car," said Tice, "and I found 74 cents under the front seat when I got home."

Big Aviation Problem Is Labeled as 'Noise'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — John R. Wiley, director of aviation for the Port of New York Authority, says noise is the number one problem facing the aviation industry today.

Addressing a meeting Monday of the Airport Operators Council, of which he is preisdent, Wiley said manufacturers must direct efforts to reduce airplane noise rather than ask the public to tolerate it.

Students Sound Off

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — A teacher from Lee High School was excused from class so a group of visiting educators could question the teen - agers without embarrassment.

The youngsters let fly, saying their worse problem was a lack of books in the school library. They said they often had to go to the public library; then often the public library didn't have what they wanted; so they had to go to Jacksonville University; and finally, some said, they had to drive to the University of Florida at Gainesville 70 miles from Jacksonville.

They said, too, that teachers limit them too much: "We're seniors; we should be able to think for orrselves."

Motor Vehicle Check Success

Scouts, Civic Clubs Look for Defects

The Pickaway District Scout sponsored Vehicle Safety Check conducted Saturday, was highly successful, officials of the Pickaway County Traffic Safety Committee stated today.

Scout leaders and local Kiwanis Club members provided the adult manpower and Scouts from Troops 323, 155, 205 and 170 provided the "Scout power" for conducting the 10-point vehicle safety checks in the five check-lanes set up on N. Pickaway St.

Cub Scouts assisted by obtaining pledges for a car check from adults in their neighborhoods. A contest to see which Cub could obtain the most pledges was conducted and a close race was underway.

The County Traffic Safety Committee has offered prizes for the Cubs obtaining the most pledges. The first prize is $3; the second, $2, and the third prize, $1. Winners will be announced next Wednesday.

* * *

STATISTICS ON the event were compiled by the Business and Professional Women's Club and the stubs indicated a total of 372 cars and six trucks checked. There were 30 cars found defective and six returned with the defects corrected.

Rear lights topped the list of defects found in the ten point check with defective glass (windshields, side or rear windows broken) next on the list. The deficiencies were listed as follows:

Rear lights out—13; glass broken—5; front lights out—4; smooth tires—3; defective exhausts—3, and inoperative windshield wipers—2.

Four cars returned with defective tail lights repaired, one with a new tire replacing a smooth one and one with a new tail pipe installed.

There were three shifts of checkers and scout assistants. The 10 a. m. to noon shift was covered by Scouts Billy Huffman II, Bret Holcomb, Don Benner, Steve Benner and Paul White of Troop 323 and Jerry Smallwood and Charles Fullen of Troop 155.

Adults as checkers were Billy Huffman, scoutmaster, and Ned Dresbach, Tom Bennett, Charles Hart and J. Wray Henry of the Kiwanis Club.

* * *

THE EARLY afternoon shift was manned by Scouts Merle Bethel Jr., Terrence Ferrell Jr., David Matesky, Gerald Davis, Roger Grigg and George Grigg of Troop 205 with Gene Dowler, scoutmaster, and Tom Matesky, Bob Wilson, Frank Gill and Bill Fraas of the Kiwanis Club as the adult supervision.

The late afternoon shift was run by Scouts Jack Martin, Mike Woodward, Mike Gilmore and Mike Merriman of Troop 170 with Andy Lorentz, scoutmaster, and Floyd Adams and Jim Carr of the Kiwanis Club and the adult supervisors.

Setting up assistance was received from Cecil Pritchard and Kiwanians George Hartman and Virgil Cress. Dismantling was done by Floyd Adams, Teddy Adams and Bertus Bennett. The Circleville Police assisted by directing traffic at the check lanes.

Materials used in the Vehicle Safety Check were donated by Mac's Tire and Appliance Store, Circleville Lumber Co. and Harden Chevrolet.

The program was directed by the County Safety Committee. Win Story, president of the committee, guided activities at the check lanes.

Ohioan Asks U.S. Not To Buy His Gear

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Ohio businessman whose firm makes aerial gunnery targets that are towed behind airplanes has convinced the government the product is outmoded and should not be bought any more.

The story was related Monday by Rep. Frank T. Bow (R-Ohio). Bow did not identify the businessman, one of his constituents.

The story Bow tells is this:

Because of increased speed of planes, requirements for aerial gunnery targets have changed.

The Ohio manufacturer told Bow that one branch of the armed services was conducting experiments to develop new targets. But another branch was continuing to buy the older target.

The procurement office insisted it had no choice but to order more of the older targets.

"Our friend (the businessman), who could have sold them and made a profit, did not want to furnish the unusable item," Bow said.

"We took the case to the secretary of the Air Force, and we had this procurement stopped. The two branches of the service are now cooperating on developing a satisfactory new target."

Ferguson Named To Cootie Post

At the 26th annual Convention of The Military Order of the Cooties, held in Hamilton, Lowell Ferguson was elected to the Office of Grand Jr. Vice Commander of Ohio.

Ferguson, who served as Grand Hospital Chairman last year, reported that the Cooties of Ohio, had expended $181,696.06, made 829 visits and had donated 1,059 pints of blood.

The Cooties are the honor degree of the VFW, and their purpose is to give service to hospitalized veterans.

Local delegates attending the convention were Cooties Charles Shepherd and Orland Inbody.

DEFIANCE, Ohio (AP) — Mrs. Anna Brown, 93, mother of Holgate-born comedian Joe E. Brown, will be queen of the 86th annual convention of the Northwestern Ohio Volunteer Firemen's Association on June 18.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

Cloudy skies prevailed over the west and south of the state while the northeast had bright sunshine early today.

Temperatures in the clear area were in the 40s with Cleveland reporting 47, Youngstown 42. Under cloudy skies with light sprinkles of rain, Cincinnati had 60, Columbus 57.

The morning weather map showed widespread heavy clouds from Ohio back into the Great Plains states, with scattered showers far to the west. The heavy clouds were running ahead of a low pressure area located over the central plains this morning.

With the low pressure moving slowly toward Ohio, prospects are favorable for scattered thundershowers to move into the extreme western counties late today with all sections of the state likely to have showers and thundershowers Thursday.

OHIO FIVE DAY FORECAST

Temperatures expected to average about 3 degrees above normal. Normal high 74 north to 77 south; normal low 51-54. Little change Friday and Saturday, warmer Sunday or Monday. Showers and thundershowers Thursday and Friday and possibly again Monday. Total rainfall about one inch.

Replogle Firm Makes Low Bid

The local C. F. Replogle Co. has submitted an apparent low bid to the Ohio Department of Highways for a 6½ - mile relocation of Route 22 in Harrison and Jefferson Counties.

The Replogle bid was $3,636,427.-57. The state estimate was $4,011,-000.

The relocation runs north of Cadiz and Hopedale. The project calls for four - lane limited access standards, according to the State Highway Department.

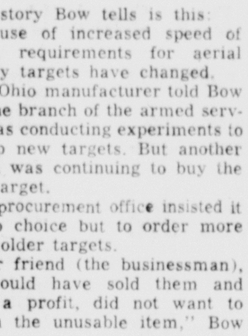

In other bids received this week, the F. H. Brewer Co. of Lancaster submitted the apparent low bid of $78,531.01 for widening and resurfacing three miles of Route 22 just east of Amanda. The State estimate was $79,800.

New Mexico Oil Lease Swindles Are Reported

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Persons interested in buying New Mexico oil and gas leases should do so only after investigating any offer, says the Ohio Division of Securities. Division Chief W. Patrick Green said swindlers make legitimate purchases of oil and gas leases from the State of New Mexico, but then resell the leases to "sucker lists" in blocks of 40 acres at up to $40.

The State of New Mexico's conduct "is entirely legitimate and above reproach," Green said, adding that the fraud occurs in the resale of the leases by the swindlers.

Baltimore '9' No Longer AL's Weak Sister

Chisox Defeated As Orioles Stake Claim on 1st Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Baltimore Orioles, it appears, no longer are pigeons for the other American League clubs.

The Birds, backing southpaw rookie Steve Barber with a five-run fourth-inning, rode back into first place with a 6-1 victory at Chicago Tuesday night, dropping the White Sox to third with their third straight defeat in the opener of a two-game series.

It was the third consecutive victory for the Orioles. They now have a 3-1 season edge over the defending champions and a half-game lead over both Cleveland and the White Sox.

Cleveland moved into second place, five percentage points ahead of Chicago, with a 7-2 victory over Washington. Detroit closed within one game of fourth-place New York as Don Mossi whipped the Yankees 4-0 with a four-hitter. Kansas City sent Boston to a 10th straight defeat, 6-2.

In the National League, San Francisco regained first place by beating Philadelphia 4-0 on a four-hitter by Sam Jones. Pittsburgh slipped eight percentage points behind the Giants with a 4-2 loss to Los Angeles. Milwaukee at St. Louis and Chicago at Cincinnati were rained out.

The Orioles beat southpaw Herb Score (1-3) with two out in the fourth inning. Baltimore collected 13 walks off four White Sox pitchers. Score gave up seven of them, two in the five-run outburst.

Barber, 21, won his third in a row with a seven-hitter.

Johnny Romano drove in three runs for Cleveland, two with a clinching, seventh-inning homer. The Indians then counted four in the eighth. Bubba Phillips drove in two with a single. Jim (Mudcat) Grant, now 12-0 lifetime against the Senators, won it with a four-hitter for a 2-1 record. Jim Lemon hit a two-run homer in the ninth, his 10th, tops in the majors. Chuck Stobbs (1-1) lost it.

The Tigers, finally back to .500 after that 10-game losing streak, won their third in a row with a first-inning run on a walk, a wild pitch and Al Kaline's two-out single off loser Bill Short (2-3). Charlie Maxwell's second home run in two games got the other three home in the fifth. Mossi, now 2-3, had a two-hitter until the ninth, when he got Roger Maris on a grounder after two-out singles by Bill Skowron and Elston Howard.

Marv Throneberry hit a home run, triple and double for the A's, scoring three runs and driving in three. His two-run double decided it in the fourth off Dave Hillman, who lost his first AL decision. Bud Daley (4-2) won his third in a row.

Magnificent Maurice Set For Mat Debut Here Friday

A last minute change in scheduling will bring famed "Magnificent Maurice" here for Friday night's professional wrestling card at the Pickaway County Fairgrounds Coliseum.

Maurice, boasting that he is the most handsome and glamorous man in the wrestling game, will take on George Strickland, a Columbus boy. Originally Strickland was slated to meet Wild Bill Scholl.

Maurice, often described as the "sexiest man in France", is a dynamic heavyweight professional wrestler. He stands 6-2 and weighs 240 pounds. He loves to hear the girls whistle when he enters the ring.

The strutting Frenchman enters the ring wearing a fancy "evening" black hat, white gloves, a cape and a silver headed cane. He describes most other male wrestlers as "nothing to look at, uninteresting and lacking savior-faire".

* * *

WHEN told about Handsome Johnny Barend, the American glamour wrestler, Maurice said: "He must be trying to copy me, but thats impossible. In France, he'd be lucky to win a beauty contest with the pug-ugly boxers.

In spite of his boasting, Maurice may meet more than his match in

MAGNIFICENT MAURICE

Strickland, a former star football player who knows all the tricks of the mat sport.

Also on Friday's card will be Karol Krauser vs Oscar Verdu and Tony Baillargeon vs. Bill Gallion. The first bout is slated to start at 8:30 p. m.

A special event will be a tag team match. The teams will be composed of the wrestlers performing in the first three matches.

It will mark the first time a tag match has been scheduled here in the current mat program. Plenty of excitement is expected in the rough gang-type battle.

Advanced ringside tickets are on sale at Benny's Court and Main Restaurant. They will be sold on a first come basis.

* * *

THE MAT card again will be sponsored here by the Circleville Booster Club and the Pickaway County Agriculture Society Grandstand Committee.

Booster Club proceeds will be used to help purchase uniforms for the new 7th and 8th grade football program here this season. The agriculture society will devote its funds towards the new harness grandstand which now is under construction at the Fairgrounds.

Redlegs Shop For Another 1st Baseman

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds apparently are in the market for a first baseman.

That doesn't mean they aren't satisfied with Frank Robinson. It just means the Redleg bosses seem to be coming to the opinion that rookie outfielder Tony Gonzalez isn't ready as a hitter. Gonzalez currently is hitting only .223 and hasn't had a hit his last 20 times up.

So if Gonzalez goes, the Reds would like to move Robinson back to the outfield—which he prefers, anyhow—and that creates a need for a first baseman.

Rainout of Tuesday night's game between the Reds and the Chicago Cubs set it up for an extended huddle involving General Manager Gabe Paul and Manager Fred Hutchinson of Cincinnati and Cubs Vice President John Holland and Manager Lou Boudreau.

When it was over they insisted no deals were near.

Indications are, however, that the Reds want Chicago outfielder-first baseman George Altman. It wasn't known whom the Cubs sought but they were reported in the market for an outfielder.

Only last weekend, Paul conferred in St. Louis with Cardinal officials and it was reported he was seeking Joe Cunningham or Bill White, either of whom can play first base.

Just where all those reported trade talks leave Jerry Lunch is a mystery. Lynch long has been rapped as a mediocre fielder and as a fellow who doesn't hit well against left-handed pitching. But in 1958 he batted .312 when given a chance to play regularly much of the time.

Ohioan Lands Olympic Boxing Alternate Spot

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—James Scates of Warren, Ohio, was named Tuesday as one of the 12 alternates for the U. S. Olympics boxing team.

The boxers were chosen by Olympic boxing coach Julie Menendez of San Jose State College. He emphasized they must be approved by Willis Hunter, chairman of the Olympic development committee.

Overweight Archie Moore Is Favorite

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore, looking as though he trained for a fat man's picnic race, makes his first start in nine months tonight against Germany's Willi Besmanoff in a 10-round heavyweight match.

The nationally televised match 9 p. m., EST (ABC-TV) is a replay of a May 2, 1958 bout in which Moore scored a split decision over Besmanoff in Louisville, Ky.

Moore is called a 2½ to 1 favorite even though he'll come into the ring about 200 pounds, 25 over the 175 limit at which he reigns world champion.

Kiwanis To Practice

The Kiwanis ball club of the Circleville Babe Ruth League will practice at 4 p. m. tomorrow on the main diamond in Ted Lewis Park. Ronald Easter is head manager and Emmitt Dade is assistant.

DuPont To Practice

The DuPont Babe Ruth League team will hold its first practice at 9 a. m. Saturday on the main diamond in Ted Lewis Park. Head manager is William Blanton and assistant manager is Allen Berger.

State Cinder Carnival Set

Ohio High Schoolers To Vie in Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's high school track-field championships Friday and Saturday should be twice as sensational as any of the previous 50 scholastic cinder carnivals.

Admission price for fans has been boosted from 50 cents to one dollar.

But there will be no charge for customers wishing to view the 33rd baseball tournament, the 34th golf championship play, or the 41st tennis meet. The four-ply spring program is scattered all over Ohio State University's athletic plant.

The 51st track-field schedule calls for 14 events in both Class A and Class AA, with the hot-shots from the starting field of 750 schools competing. Springfield and defending champion Cleveland Glenville are favored to fight it out for the Class AA crown, but Class A figures as a toss-up.

Each Class AA event has at least 37 qualifiers as the result of district eliminations, and 26 will be on hand for each Class A competition. Many more are eligible—for in one district meet eight boys tied for third in the high jump and all get a spot in the state finals.

Cincinnati Elder is back for defense in its Class AA baseball crown, but the rest of the field is new. Euclid and Lima have qualified, and Massillon and Bridgeport were in a fight for the fourth berth. Class A has Liberty Union, Newton Falls Braceville and Convoy Union in the fold, with the Southwestern District qualifier still to be heard from.

Finals in the Class A shot put, pole vault and broad jump, and the Class AA discus, are scheduled Friday afternoon, along with preliminaries in several track events in both classes.

First of the track finals is booked at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, but two Class A and four Class AA field competitions will be under way long before that. Final event is slated at 4 p.m.

The golf, tennis and baseball first rounds are scheduled Friday afternoon, with all finals Saturday.

Stonerock's Faces Garland Equipment

Stonerock's TV softball team meets Garland Equipment at 8:30 p. m. today on Southview diamond No. 2, Columbus, in the Buckeye Night League.

The local nine is 0-1 in the Buckeye League and 2-1 overall, by virtue of a double-header win Saturday night on the Ted Lewis Park diamond.

Stonerock's toppled Mr. Vernon, 8-1 and 3-0. Bob Converse won the first encounter and Kenneth Reid was credited with the second fame shutout.

Findlay To Host Ohio Trapshoot

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP)—The 74th Ohio Trapshooting Championship tournament is scheduled June 8-12 at the Fisher Bros. Shooting Park here.

The Buckeye marksmen, augmented by hot-shots from neighboring states, will go for a neat prize list which includes $5,175 in added money.

The program has been changed from that which has been in vogue for years in the state scattergun meet. Preliminary tuneups are slated June 8, followed by the preliminary handicap and doubles championships the next day, the 16-yard championship the next, and the handicap championship the closing day.

Four traps have been added to the Fisher field, making a dozen available for tournament events and two for practice.

Indians Plan Banquet

The Stoutsville High School All-Sports banquet will start at 6:30 p. m. tomorrow in the school gymnasium.

The 1961 American Bowling Congress tournament will be held in Detroit. Des Moines has the 1962 event and in 1963 Buffalo will be host.

Grant Proves OK as First Line Pitcher

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians' hunt for another starting pitcher seems to have hit gold—and it was there on their own staff all the time.

The nugget is Jim (Mudcat) Grant, who turned in his second straight victory as a starter Tuesday night. He pitcred a four-hitter in going the route for the first time this season.

The Indians' 7-2 triumph over the Washington Senators was also Mudcat's 12th consecutive defeat of his favorite cousins.

Grant hurled shutout ball until the ninth, when Jim Lemon, the league's leading home-run hitter, blasted his 10th with one man aboard to end the string of 15 zeroes Grant posted in the two starts.

The Senators made only two hits off Grant in the first eight innings.

"I decided before the game that I was going to put everything I had on every pitch," Grant explained afterwards. "I thought I'd bear down and go as far as I could."

Due to a combination of a poor showing in the spring, a sore shoulder and some fast-developing rookie hurlers, Grant got his first start just last Friday. He beat the Red Sox, but was retired in the eighth.

"It's good to see Mudcat come around," said Manager Joe Gordon.

Gordon added, however, that he still can use another starter.

The Indians gave Mudcat a big lead Tuesday night by scoring one run in the fourth, two on a homer by John Romano in the seventh and four in the eighth.

The loser was Chuck Stobbs (1-1), who made his first start of the season. Grant's record now is 2-1.

Kipp Fills Bill For Richmond

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Left-hander Fred Kipp seems to be just what the doctor ordered to help out a spotty Richmond Vees pitching staff.

Kipp, released to the International League club by the parent New York Yankees last week after coming from the Los Angeles Dodgers, has turned out to be a yoeman long or short-term reliever. Tuesday night, he took over for Eli Grba with one out in the fourth and scattered three hits the rest of the way for a 4-2 victory over Columbus.

In the only other game on a rain-curtailed schedule, Havana defeated Miami 11-7.

Steamin' Enroute To Yonkers Track

George W. Van Camp, 307 Oakwood Place, shipped his prize stallion, Steamin' Demon, to Yonkers Raceway in New York today.

Steamin' Demon, the world's double - gaited champion, has been stabled at the Pickaway County Fairgrounds since December.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Camp plan to go to Yonkers later in the season to watch their favorite.

10-to-1 Shot Collects Lebanon Feature Purse

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—Mike's Lady, a 10 to 1 shot, took the lead on the front stretch the first time around and held it the rest of the way to win the featured Class C-1 pace at Lebanon Raceway Tuesday night.

Mike's Lady, a five - year - old brown mare, driven by Mitchell O'Neal and owned by J. C. Pinney of Union City, Ind., covered the mile in 2:06 1-5 and paid $22.60 to win.

GE Baseballers To Meet Thursday

Baltimore '9' No Longer AL's Weak Sister

Chisox Defeated As Orioles Stake Claim on 1st Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Baltimore Orioles, it appears, no longer are pigeons for the other American League clubs.

The Birds, backing southpaw rookie Steve Barber with a five-run fourth-inning, rode back into first place with a 6-1 victory at Chicago Tuesday night, dropping the White Sox to third with their third straight defeat in the opener of a two-game series.

It was the third consecutive victory for the Orioles. They now have a 3-1 season edge over the defending champions and a half-game lead over both Cleveland and the White Sox.

Cleveland moved into second place, five percentage points ahead of Chicago, with a 7-2 victory over Washington. Detroit closed within one game of fourth-place New York as Don Mossi whipped the Yankees 4-0 with a four-hitter. Kansas City sent Boston to a 10th straight defeat, 6-2.

In the National League, San Francisco regained first place by beating Philadelphia 4-0 on a four-hitter by Sam Jones. Pittsburgh slipped eight percentage points behind the Giants with a 4-2 loss to Los Angeles. Milwaukee at St. Louis and Chicago at Cincinnati were rained out.

The Orioles beat southpaw Herb Score (1-3) with two out in the fourth inning. Baltimore collected 13 walks off four White Sox pitchers. Score gave up seven of them, two in the five-run outburst.

Barber, 21, won his third in a row with a seven-hitter.

Johnny Romano drove in three runs for Cleveland, two with a clinching, seventh-inning homer. The Indians then counted four in the eighth. Bubba Phillips drove in two with a single. Jim (Mudcat) Grant, now 12-0 lifetime against the Senators, won it with a four-hitter for a 2-1 record. Jim Lemon hit a two-run homer in the ninth, his 10th, tops in the majors. Chuck Stobbs (1-1) lost it.

The Tigers, finally back to .500 after that 10-game losing streak, won their third in a row with a first-inning run on a walk, a wild pitch and Al Kaline's two-out single off loser Bill Short (2-3). Charlie Maxwell's second home run in two games got the other three home in the fifth. Mossi, now 2-3, had a two-hitter until the ninth, when he got Roger Maris on a grounder after two-out singles by Bill Skowron and Elston Howard.

Marv Throneberry hit a home run, triple and double for the A's, scoring three runs and driving in three. His two-run double decided it in the fourth off Dave Hillman, who lost his first AL decision. Bud Daley (4-2) won his third in a row.

Magnificent Maurice Set For Mat Debut Here Friday

A last minute change in scheduling will bring famed "Magnificent Maurice" here for Friday night's professional wrestling card at the Pickaway County Fairgrounds Coliseum.

Maurice, boasting that he is the most handsome and glamorous man in the wrestling game, will take on George Strickland, a Columbus boy. Originally Strickland was slated to meet Wild Bill Scholl.

Maurice, often described as the "sexiest man in France", is a dynamic heavyweight professional wrestler. He stands 6-2 and weighs 240 pounds. He loves to hear the girls whistle when he enters the ring.

The strutting Frenchman enters the ring wearing a fancy "evening" black hat, white gloves, a cape and a silver headed cane. He describes most other male wrestlers as "nothing to look at, uninteresting and lacking savior-faire".

* * *

WHEN told about Handsome Johnny Barend, the American glamour wrestler, Maurice said: "He must be trying to copy me, but thats impossible. In France, he'd be lucky to win a beauty contest with the pug-ugly boxers.

In spite of his boasting, Maurice may meet more than his match in Strickland, a former star football player who knows all the tricks of the mat sport.

MAGNIFICENT MAURICE

Also on Friday's card will be Karol Krauser vs Oscar Verdu and Tony Baillargeon vs. Bill Gallion. The first bout is slated to start at 8:30 p. m.

A special event will be a tag team match. The teams will be composed of the wrestlers performing in the first three matches.

It will mark the first time a tag match has been scheduled here in the current mat program. Plenty of excitement is expected in the rough gang-type battle.

Advanced ringside tickets are on sale at Benny's Court and Main Restaurant. They will be sold on a first come basis.

* * *

THE MAT card again will be sponsored here by the Circleville Booster Club and the Pickaway County Agriculture Society Grandstand Committee.

Booster Club proceeds will be used to help purchase uniforms for the new 7th and 8th grade football program here this season. The agriculture society will devote its funds towards the new harness grandstand which now is under construction at the Fairgrounds.

Redlegs Shop For Another 1st Baseman

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds apparently are in the market for a first baseman.

That doesn't mean they aren't satisfied with Frank Robinson. It just means the Redleg bosses seem to be coming to the opinion that rookie outfielder Tony Gonzalez isn't ready as a hitter. Gonzalez currently is hitting only .223 and hasn't had a hit his last 20 times up.

So if Gonzalez goes, the Reds would like to move Robinson back to the outfield—which he prefers, anyhow—and that creates a need for a first baseman.

Rainout of Tuesday night's game between the Reds and the Chicago Cubs set it up for an extended huddle involving General Manager Gabe Paul and Manager Fred Hutchinson of Cincinnati and Cubs Vice President John Holland and Manager Lou Boudreau.

When it was over they insisted no deals were near.

Indications are, however, that the Reds want Chicago outfielder-first baseman George Altman. It wasn't known whom the Cubs sought but they were reported in the market for an outfielder.

Only last weekend, Paul conferred in St. Louis with Cardinal officials and it was reported he was seeking Joe Cunningham or Bill White, either of whom can play first base.

Just where all those reported trade talks leave Jerry Lunch is a mystery. Lynch long has been rapped as a mediocre fielder and as a fellow who doesn't hit well against left-handed pitching. But in 1958 he batted .312 when given a chance to play regularly much of the time.

Ohioan Lands Olympic Boxing Alternate Spot

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—James Scates of Warren, Ohio, was named Tuesday as one of the 12 alternates for the U. S. Olympics boxing team.

The boxers were chosen by Olympic boxing coach Julie Menendez of San Jose State College. He emphasized they must be approved by Willis Hunter, chairman of the Olympic development committee.

Overweight Archie Moore Is Favorite

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore, looking as though he trained for a fat man's picnic race, makes his first start in nine months tonight against Germany's Willi Besmanoff in a 10-round heavyweight match.

The nationally televised match 9 p. m., EST (ABC-TV) is a replay of a May 2, 1958 bout in which Moore scored a split decision over Besmanoff in Louisville, Ky.

Moore is called a 2½ to 1 favorite even though he'll come into the ring about 200 pounds, 25 over the 175 limit at which he reigns world champion.

Kiwanis To Practice

The Kiwanis ball club of the Circleville Babe Ruth League will practice at 4 p. m. tomorrow on the main diamond in Ted Lewis Park. Ronald Easter is head manager and Emmitt Dade is assistant.

DuPont To Practice

The DuPont Babe Ruth League team will hold its first practice at 9 a. m. Saturday on the main diamond in Ted Lewis Park. Head manager is William Blanton and assistant manager is Allen Berger.

State Cinder Carnival Set

Ohio High Schoolers To Vie in Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's high school track-field championships Friday and Saturday should be twice as sensational as any of the previous 50 scholastic cinder carnivals.

Admission price for fans has been boosted from 50 cents to one dollar.

But there will be no charge for customers wishing to view the 33rd baseball tournament, the 34th golf championship play, or the 41st tennis meet. The four-ply spring program is scattered all over Ohio State University's athletic plant.

The 51st track-field schedule calls for 14 events in both Class A and Class AA, with the hot-shots from the starting field of 750 schools competing. Springfield and defending champion Cleveland Glenville are favored to fight it out for the Class AA crown, but Class A figures as a toss-up.

Each Class AA event has at least 37 qualifiers as the result of district eliminations, and 26 will be on hand for each Class A competition. Many more are eligible—for in one district meet eight boys tied for third in the high jump and all get a spot in the state finals.

Cincinnati Elder is back for defense in its Class AA baseball crown, but the rest of the field is new. Euclid and Lima have qualified, and Massillon and Bridgeport were in a fight for the fourth berth. Class A has Liberty Unfon, Newton Falls Braceville and Convoy Union in the fold, with the Southwestern District qualifier still to be heard from.

Finals in the Class A shot put, pole vault and broad jump, and the Class AA discus, are scheduled Friday afternoon, along with preliminaries in several track events in both classes.

First of the track finals is booked at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, but two Class A and four Class AA field competitions will be under way long before that. Final event is slated at 4 p.m.

The golf, tennis and baseball first rounds are scheduled Friday afternoon, with all finals Saturday.

Stonerock's Faces Garland Equipment

Stonerock's TV softball team meets Garland Equipment at 8:30 p. m. today on Southview diamond No. 2, Columbus, in the Buckeye Night League.

The local nine is 0-1 in the Buckeye League and 2-1 overall, by virtue of a double-header win Saturday night on the Ted Lewis Park diamond.

Stonerock's toppled Mr. Vernon, 8-1 and 3-0. Bob Converse won the first encounter and Kenneth Reid was credited with the second fame shutout.

Findlay To Host Ohio Trapshoot

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP)—The 74th Ohio Trapshooting Championship tournament is scheduled June 8-12 at the Fisher Bros. Shooting Park here.

The Buckeye marksmen, augmented by hot-shots from neighboring states, will go for a neat prize list which includes $5,175 in added money.

The program has been changed from that which has been in vogue for years in the state scattergun meet. Preliminary tuneups are slated June 8, followed by the preliminary handicap and doubles championships the next day, the 16-yard championship the next, and the handicap championship the closing day.

Four traps have been added to the Fisher field, making a dozen available for tournament events and two for practice.

Indians Plan Banquet

The Stoutsville High School All-Sports banquet will start at 6:30 p. m. tomorrow in the school gymnasium.

The 1961 American Bowling Congress tournament will be held in Detroit. Des Moines has the 1962 event and in 1963 Buffalo will be host.

Grant Proves OK as First Line Pitcher

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians' hunt for another starting pitcher seems to have hit gold—and it was there on their own staff all the time.

The nugget is Jim (Mudcat) Grant, who turned in his second straight victory as a starter Tuesday night. He pitcred a four-hitter in going the route for the first time this season.

The Indians' 7-2 triumph over the Washington Senators was also Mudcat's 12th consecutive defeat of his favorite counsins.

Grant hurled shutout ball until the ninth, when Jim Lemon, the league's leading home-run hitter, blasted his 10th with one man aboard to end the string of 15 zeroes Grant posted in the two starts.

The Senators made only two hits off Grant in the first eight innings.

"I decided before the game that I was going to put everything I had on every pitch," Grant explained afterwards. "I thought I'd bear down and go as far as I could."

Due to a combination of a poor showing in the spring, a sore shoulder and some fast-developing rookie hurlers, Grant got his first start just last Friday. He beat the Red Sox, but was retired in the eighth.

"It's good to see Mudcat come around," said Manager Joe Gordon.

Gordon added, however, that he still can use another starter.

The Indians gave Mudcat a big lead Tuesday night by scoring one run in the fourth, two on a homer by John Romano in the seventh and four in the eighth.

The loser was Chuck Stobbs (1-1), who made his first start of the season. Grant's record now is 2-1.

Kipp Fills Bill For Richmond

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Left-hander Fred Kipp seems to be just what the doctor ordered to help out a spotty Richmond Vees pitching staff.

Kipp, released to the International League club by the parent New York Yankees last week after coming from the Los Angeles Dodgers, has turned out to be a yoeman long or short-term reliever. Tuesday night, he took over for Eli Grba with one out in the fourth and scattered three hits the rest of the way for a 4-2 victory over Columbus.

In the only other game on a rain-curtailed schedule, Havana defeated Miami 11-7.

Steamin' Enroute To Yonkers Track

George W. Van Camp, 307 Oakwood Place, shipped his prize stallion, Steamin' Demon, to Yonkers Raceway in New York today.

Steamin' Demon, the world's double - gaited champion, has been stabled at the Pickaway County Fairgrounds since December.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Camp plan to go to Yonkers later in the season to watch their favorite.

10-to-1 Shot Collects Lebanon Feature Purse

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—Mike's Lady, a 10 to 1 shot, took the lead on the front stretch the first time around and held it the rest of the way to win the featured Class C-1 pace at Lebanon Raceway Tuesday night.

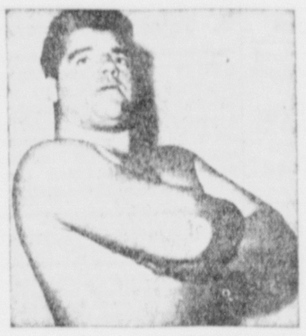

Mike's Lady, a five - year - old brown mare, driven by Mitchell O'Neal and owned by J. C. Pinney of Union City, Ind., covered the mile in 2:06 1-5 and paid $22.60 to win.

GE Baseballers To Meet Thursday

8-Pound Largemouth Bass Snagged in Clinton Pond

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A Sturgeon has caught Ohio's biggest largemouth bass of the year, in one of the state's smallest fishing ponds.

The whopper, an 8 - pound 2-ouncer measuring 23⅞ inches, was caught May 14 by Carl Sturgeon of Westerville, in a 1¾-acre pond in Clinton County, on a farm owned by Dr. James C. Johnson of Wilmington.

Sturgeon fished the pond all morning and caught nothing else—and he had quite a tussle landing the lunker without the aid of a net.

Ohio is right up near the top as an industrial state, but wildlife still abounds.

Last year 2,964 deer were killed in the Buckeye realm, in a three-day gun and 75-day archery season, and they were taken in 58 of the 88 counties. In 1958, when 42,676 permit holders killed 4,415 deer, 72 of the 88 counties yielded the antlered game.

The Wildlife Division figures the 1959 take was down because of the shorter season and the fact there was no snow on the ground during the gun-hunting season.

Washington County was tops with an estimated kill of 200 last year, Ashtabula second with 194. It was the first time since deer seasons were inaugurated that Ashtabula failed to lead. Other leaders were Muskingum 134, Meigs 120, Harrison 120, Athens 116, Vinton 116, Morgan 108 and Monroe 104.

Smallmouth bass are thicker than you might think. Ed Brown Jr., fish management supervisor, found from 60 to 100 smallmouths, 10 inches or longer, in a quarter-mile stretch of Massie Creek in Clark and Greene counties. The stream was being regularly fished, too.

Crappie fishing, although not comparable to the bonanza of several years ago, has been exceptionally good at Grand Lake St. Marys, in Auglaize and Mercer counties, and at Harrison Lake State Park in Fulton. Some nice bass are being taken at each spot, too.

Bald eagles are increasing slightly in northern Ohio, Ottawa County game protector Laurel Van Camp says. There are at least 15 pairs nesting in the Lake Erie area surrounding Sandusky, several on state wildlife preserves.

STATE OF OHIO
DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS
NOTICE OF HEARING
Contract Sales Legal Copy No. 60-389
Columbus, Ohio May 12, 1960

In accordance with the Provisions of Chapter 5511 of the Revised Code of Ohio, the Director of Highways of Ohio will hold a public hearing at 10:00 o'clock A. M., Eastern Standard Time June 9, 1960, in the Office of the Pickaway County Engineer, the Pickaway County Court House in Circleville, Ohio, for the purpose of hearing arguments for and against the proposed Relocation and Abandonment of part of State Route No. 674, Section 1.20, Pickaway-Fairfield Counties.

PROPOSED, WHEN THE PROVISIONS OF CHAPTER 5511 OF THE OHIO REVISED CODE ARE MET AND UPON PROPER ENTRY IN THE JOURNAL OF THE DIRECTOR OF HIGHWAYS, THE RELOCATION OF STATE ROUTE NO. 674, SITUATED IN AMANDA TOWNSHIP T-13-N, R-20-W, OF THE OHIO RIVER SURVEY, FAIRFIELD COUNTY, OHIO, AND IN WALNUT TOWNSHIP T-9-N OF THE BUCKINGHAM SURVEY, R-21-W OF THE OHIO RIVER SURVEY, PICKAWAY COUNTY, Ohio.

And being more fully described as follows:

Beginning at a point in the centerline of existing State Route No. 674 known as the Canal Winchester South Road, said point being at its existing intersection with Township Road No. 158 in Fairfield County and being at an angle in the centerline of existing State Route No. 674 and being the intersection of the south line of said Township No. 13 with the line between Fairfield and Pickaway Counties; thence in a northwesterly direction along a curve to the right to a point in existing State Route No. 674 and there terminate. Said point of termination being on the line between Fairfield and Pickaway Counties and being 0.40 mile, more or less, as measured along its existing centerline northerly from its intersection with Township Road No. 158 in Fairfield County, or Township Road No. 39 in Pickaway County. Said relocated portion having a total length of 0.45 mile, more or less.

PROPOSED, WHEN THE PROVISIONS OF CHAPTER 5511 OF THE OHIO REVISED CODE ARE MET AND UPON PROPER ENTRY IN THE JOURNAL OF THE DIRECTOR OF HIGHWAYS, THE ABANDONMENT OF EXISTING STATE ROUTE NO. 674 SITUATED IN AMANDA TOWNSHIP T-13-N, R-20-W, OF THE OHIO RIVER SURVEY, FAIRFIELD COUNTY, OHIO, AND IN WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP, T-11-N OF THE WORTHINGTON SURVEY R-21-W OF THE OHIO RIVER SURVEY AND IN WALNUT TOWNSHIP T-9-N OF THE BUCKINGHAM SURVEY R-21-W OF THE OHIO RIVER SURVEY, PICKAWAY COUNTY, OHIO, SAME TO REVERT TO THE FAIRFIELD COUNTY HIGHWAY SYSTEM AND THE PICKAWAY COUNTY HIGHWAY SYSTEM AT SUCH A TIME THAT THE CORRESPONDING INTERSECTION OF THE ABOVE MENTIONED PROPOSED RELOCATION IS ACCEPTED BY THE DIRECTOR.

And being more fully described as follows:

Beginning at a point in the centerline of existing State Route No. 674 known as the Canal Winchester South Road, said point being at its existing intersection with Township Road No. 158 in Fairfield County and being at an angle in the centerline of existing State Route No. 674 and being the intersection of the south line of said Township 13 with the line between Fairfield and Pickaway Counties; thence westerly to its intersection with Township Road No. 39 in Pickaway County, thence northerly to a point in existing State Route No. 674 and there terminate. Said point of termination being on the line between Fairfield and Pickaway Counties and being 0.40 mile, more or less, as measured along its existing centerline northerly from its intersection with Township Road No. 158 in Pickaway County, and being all that portion of existing State Route No. 674 not needed for the construction and maintenance of the above described proposed relocation, or needed for any other State Highway.

Docket 21, Page 26, Filed May 20, 1960
IN THE MATTER OF THE ADOPTION OF Charles Harrison Henson
NOTICE

TO: CHARLES P. GASTINGER, address and place of residence unknown

You are hereby notified that on the 20th day of May, 1960, a Petition for the Adoption of Charles Harrison Gastinger, who was born April 3, 1942, at Columbus, Ohio, was filed in the Probate Court of Pickaway County, Ohio, and that the hearing on said Petition will be held before the Judge of said Court on the 9th day of July, 1960, at 10:00 a. m.

It is alleged in said Petition that you, as the father of said Child, have willfully failed to support and maintain said child for a period of more than two years immediately preceding the filing of this Petition.

Views on Television - Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Frank Gruber, writer of Westerns and currently producer of "Shotgun Slade" once made a list of the seven basic plots for the Western. They are:

The Marshal Story—exploits of the dedicated peace officer.

The Outlaw Story—adventures, sympathetically treated, of the badman (but the badman dies at the end).

The Ranch Story — the adventures of the working cattle-raisers.

The Revenge Story — the hero tracks down the villain or vice versa.

The Cavalry-and-Indians story—variations of the Custer's Last Stand theme.

The Empire Story—sagas of the cattle barons.

The Union Pacific Story—bringing transportation or communications to the West.

Naturally, nothing new has been added during the last two years.

The Western flavor however, is so standardized that most of us veteran TV watchers can tell what kind of a show it will be just from the title: "Bronco," "Gunsmoke," "Wanted Dead or Alive," "Overland Trail." 8-Pound Largemouth Bass Snagged in Clinton Pond

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A Sturgeon has caught Ohio's biggest largemouth bass of the year, in one of the state's smallest fishing ponds.

The whopper, an 8 - pound 2-ouncer measuring 23⅞ inches, was caught May 14 by Carl Sturgeon of Westerville, in a 1¾-acre pond in Clinton County, on a farm owned by Dr. James C. Johnson of Wilmington.

Sturgeon fished the pond all morning and caught nothing else—and he had quite a tussle landing the lunker without the aid of a net.

Ohio is right up near the top as an industrial state, but wildlife still abounds.

Last year 2,964 deer were killed in the Buckeye realm, in a three-day gun and 75-day archery season, and they were taken in 58 of the 88 counties. In 1958, when 42,676 permit holders killed 4,415 deer, 72 of the 88 counties yielded the antlered game.

The Wildlife Division figures the 1959 take was down because of the shorter season and the fact there was no snow on the ground during the gun-hunting season.

Washington County was tops with an estimated kill of 200 last year, Ashtabula second with 194. It was the first time since deer seasons were inaugurated that Ashtabula failed to lead. Other leaders were Muskingum 134, Meigs 120, Harrison 120, Athens 116, Vinton 116, Morgan 108 and Monroe 104.

Smallmouth bass are thicker than you might think. Ed Brown Jr., fish management supervisor, found from 60 to 100 smallmouths, 10 inches or longer, in a quarter-mile stretch of Massie Creek in Clark and Greene counties. The stream was being regularly fished, too.

Crappie fishing, although not comparable to the bonanza of several years ago, has been exceptionally good at Grand Lake St. Marys, in Auglaize and Mercer counties, and at Harrison Lake State Park in Fulton. Some nice bass are being taken at each spot, too.

Bald eagles are increasing slightly in northern Ohio, Ottawa County game protector Laurel Van Camp says. There are at least 15 pairs nesting in the Lake Erie area surrounding Sandusky, several on state wildlife preserves.

STATE OF OHIO
DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS
NOTICE OF HEARING
Contract Sales Legal Copy No. 60-389
Columbus, Ohio May 12, 1960

In accordance with the Provisions of Chapter 5511 of the Revised Code of Ohio, the Director of Highways of Ohio will hold a public hearing at 10:00 o'clock A. M., Eastern Standard Time June 9, 1960, in the Office of the Pickaway County Engineer, the Pickaway County Court House in Circleville, Ohio, for the purpose of hearing arguments for and against the proposed Relocation and Abandonment of part of State Route No. 674, Section 1.20, Pickaway-Fairfield Counties.

PROPOSED, WHEN THE PROVISIONS OF CHAPTER 5511 OF THE OHIO REVISED CODE ARE MET AND UPON PROPER ENTRY IN THE JOURNAL OF THE DIRECTOR OF HIGHWAYS, THE RELOCATION OF STATE ROUTE NO. 674, SITUATED IN AMANDA TOWNSHIP T-13-N, R-20-W, OF THE OHIO RIVER SURVEY, FAIRFIELD COUNTY, OHIO, AND IN WALNUT TOWNSHIP T-9-N OF THE BUCKINGHAM SURVEY, R-21-W OF THE OHIO RIVER SURVEY, PICKAWAY COUNTY, Ohio.

And being more fully described as follows:

Beginning at a point in the centerline of existing State Route No. 674 known as the Canal Winchester South Road, said point being at its existing intersection with Township Road No. 158 in Fairfield County and being at an angle in the centerline of existing State Route No. 674 and being the intersection of the south line of said Township No. 13 with the line between Fairfield and Pickaway Counties; thence in a northwesterly direction along a curve to the right to a point in existing State Route No. 674 and there terminate. Said point of termination being on the line between Fairfield and Pickaway Counties and being 0.40 mile, more or less, as measured along its existing centerline northerly from its intersection with Township Road No. 158 in Fairfield County, or Township Road No. 39 in Pickaway County. Said relocated portion having a total length of 0.45 mile, more or less.

PROPOSED, WHEN THE PROVISIONS OF CHAPTER 5511 OF THE OHIO REVISED CODE ARE MET AND UPON PROPER ENTRY IN THE JOURNAL OF THE DIRECTOR OF HIGHWAYS, THE ABANDONMENT OF EXISTING STATE ROUTE NO. 674 SITUATED IN AMANDA TOWNSHIP T-13-N, R-20-W, OF THE OHIO RIVER SURVEY, FAIRFIELD COUNTY, OHIO, AND IN WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP, T-11-N OF THE WORTHINGTON SURVEY R-21-W OF THE OHIO RIVER SURVEY AND IN WALNUT TOWNSHIP T-8-N OF THE BUCKINGHAM SURVEY R-21-W OF THE OHIO RIVER SURVEY, PICKAWAY COUNTY, OHIO, SAME TO REVERT TO THE FAIRFIELD COUNTY HIGHWAY SYSTEM AND THE PICKAWAY COUNTY HIGHWAY SYSTEM AT SUCH A TIME THAT THE CORRESPONDING INTERSECTION OF THE ABOVE MENTIONED PROPOSED RELOCATION IS ACCEPTED BY THE DIRECTOR.

And being more fully described as follows:

Beginning at a point in the centerline of existing State Route No. 674 known as the Canal Winchester South Road, said point being at its existing intersection with Township Road No. 158 in Fairfield County and being at an angle in the centerline of existing State Route No. 674 and being the intersection of the south line of said Township 13 with the line between Fairfield and Pickaway Counties; thence westerly to its intersection with Township Road No. 39 in Pickaway County, thence northerly to a point in existing State Route No. 674 and there terminate. Said point of termination being on the line between Fairfield and Pickaway Counties and being 0.40 mile, more or less, as measured along its existing centerline northerly from its intersection with Township Road No. 158 in Pickaway County, and being all that portion of existing State Route No. 674 not needed for the construction and maintenance of the above described proposed relocation, or needed for any other State Highway.

IN THE PROBATE COURT OF PICKAWAY COUNTY, OHIO
Case No. 20226
Docket 21, Page 26. Filed May 20, 1960
IN THE MATTER OF THE ADOPTION OF Charles Harrison Henson
NOTICE

TO: CHARLES P. GASTINGER, address and place of residence unknown

You are hereby notified that on the 20th day of May, 1960, a Petition for the Adoption of Charles Harrison Gastinger, who was born April 3, 1942, at Columbus, Ohio, was filed in the Probate Court of Pickaway County, Ohio, and that the hearing on said Petition will be held before the Judge of said Court on the 9th day of July, 1960, at 10:00 a. m.

It is alleged in said Petition that you, as the father of said Child, have willfully failed to support and maintain said child for a period of more than two years immediately preceding the filing of this Petition.

Views on Television - Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Frank Gruber, writer of Westerns and currently producer of "Shotgun Slade" once made a list of the seven basic plots for the Western. They are:

The Marshal Story—exploits of the dedicated peace officer.

The Outlaw Story—adventures, sympathetically treated, of the badman (but the badman dies at the end).

The Ranch Story — the adventures of the working cattle-raisers.

The Revenge Story — the hero tracks down the villain or vice versa.

The Cavalry-and-Indians story—variations of the Custer's Last Stand theme.

The Empire Story—sagas of the cattle barons.

The Union Pacific Story—bringing transportation or communications to the West.

Naturally, nothing new has been added during the last two years.

The Western flavor however, is so standardized that most of us veteran TV watchers can tell what kind of a show it will be just from the title: "Bronco," "Gunsmoke," "Wanted Dead or Alive," "Overland Trail." This season there was "Hotel de Paree," which might have been anything, so next year it will be called "Sundance," which is more like it.

Recommended tonight: President Eisenhower's report to the nation, all networks, radio and TV, some live at 8 and others recorded for later broadcast; Circle Theatre, CBS, 10-11 — "Positive Identification," concerned with work of Legal Aid Societies.

All times Eastern Daylight.

SEATO Aides Open Parley In Capital

WASHINGTON (AP)—Top military advisers of the eight-nation Southeast Asia Treaty Organization begin a reassessment today of the Communist threat in Asia following collapse of the Paris summit meeting.

Assembled here for the 12th SEATO military advisers conference were three admirals, three generals and two air marshals with their staffs, representing the senior military leaders of Britain, France, Australia, New Zealand, the Philippines, Thailand, Pakistan and the United States.

The alliance is pledged to resist aggressive Communist expansion in the treaty area which includes Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia under SEATO's mantle of protection.

The military men are charged with turning out a report for the guidance of foreign ministers of the eight countries who convene here May 31.

Many of the SEATO military planning staff consider the possibility of a Chinese Communist-directed move against Viet Nam and Laos to be heightened. Reports of reinforcements to Chinese Communist garrisons and air bases rimming the Chinese Nationalist islands of Quemoy and Matsu also are being weighed.

Dems Attack Ike's Veto of Aid Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some Democrats claimed a new election campaign issue today in President Eisenhower's successful veto of a bill to aid depressed areas.

The Senate voted Tuesday to sustain Eisenhower's May 13 veto of the 251-million-dollar economic assistant measure.

The vote was 45 to override and 39 against. The 45 votes were 11 shy of the two-thirds majority needed to pass a bill over a veto. Forty Democrats and five Republicans voted to override. Twenty-five Republicans and 14 Democrats supported Eisenhower. The Democrats included 12 Southern senators and Sens. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio and J. Allen Frear Jr. of Delaware.

Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill) said Democrats will make an election issue of the bill's defeat as did Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa).

All three senatorial contenders for the Democratic presidential nomination—Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts and Stuart Symington of Missouri—voted to override.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Republican leader, questioned whether the Democrats sincerely wanted a bill passed.

The President said the measure was too broad and wasteful, and sent it back with the admonition that there is time yet to work out an acceptable substitute. The administration is backing a 180-million-dollar measure, but both sides have expressed doubt a new bill will be passed this year.

The Republicans who voted to override the veto were Sens. Kenneth B. Keating and Jacob K. Javits of New York, John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania and Margaret Chase Smith of Maine.

SEATO Aides Open Parley In Capital

WASHINGTON (AP)—Top military advisers of the eight-nation Southeast Asia Treaty Organization begin a reassessment today of the Communist threat in Asia following collapse of the Paris summit meeting.

Assembled here for the 12th SEATO military advisers conference were three admirals, three generals and two air marshals with their staffs, representing the senior military leaders of Britain, France, Australia, New Zealand, the Philippines, Thailand, Pakistan and the United States.

The alliance is pledged to resist aggressive Communist expansion in the treaty area which includes Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia under SEATO's mantle of protection.

The military men are charged with turning out a report for the guidance of foreign ministers of the eight countries who convene here May 31.

Many of the SEATO military planning staff consider the possibility of a Chinese Communist-directed move against Viet Nam and Laos to be heightened. Reports of reinforcements to Chinese Communist garrisons and air bases rimming the Chinese Nationalist islands of Quemoy and Matsu also are being weighed.

Dems Attack Ike's Veto of Aid Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some Democrats claimed a new election campaign issue today in President Eisenhower's successful veto of a bill to aid depressed areas.

The Senate voted Tuesday to sustain Eisenhower's May 13 veto of the 251-million-dollar economic assistant measure.

The vote was 45 to override and 39 against. The 45 votes were 11 shy of the two-thirds majority needed to pass a bill over a veto. Forty Democrats and five Republicans voted to override. Twenty-five Republicans and 14 Democrats supported Eisenhower. The Democrats included 12 Southern senators and Sens. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio and J. Allen Frear Jr. of Delaware.

Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill) said Democrats will make an election issue of the bill's defeat as did Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa).

All three senatorial contenders for the Democratic presidential nomination—Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts and Stuart Symington of Missouri—voted to override.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Republican leader, questioned whether the Democrats sincerely wanted a bill passed.

The President said the measure was too broad and wasteful, and sent it back with the admonition that there is time yet to work out an acceptable substitute. The administration is backing a 180-million-dollar measure, but both sides have expressed doubt a new bill will be passed this year.

The Republicans who voted to override the veto were Sens. Kenneth B. Keating and Jacob K. Javits of New York, John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania and Margaret Chase Smith of Maine.
